Introduction

The Compatibility Report compares two individual's natal charts and examines the inter-aspects or synastry between them. In the following report, each aspect is examined to reveal the basic qualities of your interaction, with the most important factors listed first. Please keep in mind that these descriptions are not meant to put limitations on the relationship, but merely to describe its inherent tendencies. Challenging aspects can become the greatest strength of a relationship if you can both learn how to successfully navigate those issues, with good communication between you playing a vital role. For definitions of astrological terms, please refer to the glossary at the end of this report.

Important Features

Yoko's Venus in strong trine
(within 2.5 degrees) with John's Sun
Angular planet - conjunct Descendant

and Yoko's Sun in opposition (within 3.8 degrees) with John's Venus.

Since your and your partner's complementary planets follow the same pattern, this aspect is greatly emphasized in your reading. Pay special attention to the following material!

The planetary energies are polarized; outer events stimulate their interaction; integration is the challenge.

This aspect, of Sun in dynamic relation with partner's Venus, is generally beneficial. The two of you are likely to make each other feel and look better together. There could well be friendship based on common interests, based on the mutual pursuit of some area of pleasure or aesthetic enjoyment. In a romantic context, this aspect brings attraction, pleasure, and enjoyment to your union, together with a sense of beauty, creative entertainment, and harmonious interaction. You enjoy each other with pleasure and sensitivity. This aspect supports arts, leadership in economic areas, and the creation of items of beauty, and may include as well fun in the outdoors together, pleasurable travel, and many enjoyable social engagements. There is generally warmth between the partners and glowing radiance, but it may be that the two of you come from slightly different perspectives. The differences between you can excite, and also may frustrate at times. There may be differences in taste or style, but there is also the ability to earn, enjoy abundance, or exceed expectations. There is a strong liking for each other in a generally beneficial interaction which furthers you culturally or socially.

Yoko's Mars in semi-sextile
(within 1.1 degrees) with John's Sun
Angular planet - conjunct Descendant

and Yoko's Sun in inconjunct (within 3.3 degrees) with John's Mars.

Since your and your partner's complementary planets follow the same pattern, this aspect is greatly emphasized in your reading. Pay special attention to the following material!

The planetary energies attract each other, require effort, allow entry of new information.

This aspect, of Sun in minor dynamic relation with partner's Mars symbolizes partnership energy that tends to be energetic, athletic, motivated, and passionate, and may also include manifestations of will or ego conflict such as outbursts of temper. There is a strong chance for some type of rivalry between you. Your partnership benefits if you can keep your focus on your mutual awareness of vital life pursuits, and your drive to succeed together. In a romantic context, you feel physical passion but also tension, and benefit from rational control and planning. Your achievement together can be easy or difficult, depending on how well you can get along with each other. You feel the impulse to do and move together, yet there may also be discord or you may get the feeling that you are working at crossed purposes, with partnership direction not fully aligned. Consciousness and foresight can go far to offset the possibilities for impatience and conflict between you.

Yoko's Uranus in opposition
(within 4.3 degrees) with John's Sun
Angular planet - conjunct Descendant

and Yoko's Sun in square (within 3.8 degrees) with John's Uranus.

Since your and your partner's complementary planets follow the same pattern, this aspect is greatly emphasized in your reading. Pay special attention to the following material!

The planetary energies are polarized; outer events stimulate their interaction; integration is the challenge.

This aspect, of Sun in opposition with partner's Uranus, symbolizes a changeable relationship with an element of mental stimulation that promotes excitement and creative flair. It is likely that Yoko brings much stimulation and abrupt change as well as unusual enjoyment to John. Something calls the two of you to a broader type of relationship with widespread interests, and often of a humanitarian or multi-cultural character. In a romantic context there is some unique attraction that stimulates your interaction. You have a good basis of friendship and support for each other, and may also be inventively sensual together. You can apply your good rapport into reaching each other in unique ways, and you may experience unusual partnering connections. The erratic and perhaps unexpected actions of Yoko gives them a unique appeal for John, but can also lead to feeling up in the air or very far away, perhaps unstable. The two of you may alternate between extremes of freedom and independence, versus a more settled situation, or feel the need to radically defend your own individuality. Despite these difficulties, you have an excellent chance of achievement together. You may find that your relationship brings brothers and sisters into the picture, or people of other races or creeds, and you may wish to explore science together, or perhaps film, or other cultural areas. Life between you is in a continual state of flux, creating the need for readjustment. There is also a spiritual component, as you go through many changes, by giving up and going "with the flow" of unusual surprises and much good fellowship encountered along the way. You have a good start on a dynamic and exciting, and possibly world-shaking partnership, although there is an erratic side to your connection that may incite discordant feelings between you. If you allow ultimate freedom and independence for each other, you benefit from what becomes a unique and evolved form of relationship.

Yoko's Saturn in conjunction (within 6.2 degrees) with John's Moon and Yoko's Moon in inconjunct (within 2.1 degrees) with John's Saturn.

Since your and your partner's complementary planets follow the same pattern, this aspect is greatly emphasized in your reading. Pay special attention to the following material!

The planetary energies do not flow smoothly, one or the other predominates; discrimination must be employed.

With this aspect, of the Moon in flowing relation with partner's Saturn, you have a good basis for stability and responsibility in your partnership. This is an indicator of restrictions and self-imposed discipline in your relationship. There is likely to be a recognition of the restrictions of practical necessity, calling for a self-reliant attitude. Although your partnership may be sober and serious at times, this aspect indicates good prospects for long-term loyalty and effective cooperation together. In a romantic context, this aspect is a good indicator for a stable and long-term relationship such as marriage. You may cherish the sense of being together as a unit, and may also feel that you are united against the world perhaps. You can expect some limitation of expansive fantasy and honing in of awareness, based on emotional control exerted by your partner which therefore makes for more clarity and supports movement toward cherished goals. You have the determination to work together as a team, with the capacity to function well materially. You may feel a sense of obligation and duties, perhaps to friends and family. There is also some tendency for controlling behavior, especially on the part of John, who is likely to be supportive as well, and helpful in keeping partnership progress toward shared goals and objectives on track. You do well when you focus on these shared objectives you have with each other and let go of any negative feelings or fears you may have regarding the relationship. Then you will have an enduring and productive union.

Yoko's Mercury in strong trine (within 0.7 degrees) with John's Mercury

The planetary energies flow smoothly; the connection is easy and beneficial.

This aspect of Mercury in flowing relation with Mercury gives you a good basis in your partnership for shared communication and ideas. You are likely to be on the same mental wavelength with similar interests and visions. Good communications intensify your connection with social appeal and loads of fun and laughter together. Also emphasized are writing together and mutual collaborations involving the media, mind, or ideas. In a romantic context, you find each other's ideas well with congenial insights and like visions that illuminate your sharing. Good communication, always important, is enhanced for this relationship. You will likely experience a strong desire to converse with and to learn from each other and to be involved in educational projects together. Your life is also likely to be quite busy; you may enjoy travel or things mechanical or speed and movement in general. If you are drawn toward looking for a professional purpose together, it may be by means of research or making contacts. You will experience positive sharing and exchange in your relationship, hopefully leading to viable and transformative change for each of you.

Yoko's Saturn in strong square (within 1.2 degrees) with John's Mercury

The planetary energies conflict; internal and creative tensions bring rich rewards through effort over time.

This aspect, of Mercury in square with partner's Saturn, indicates the potential for restrictions, disputes, and perhaps mental disassociation between the partners. You may find that you move in opposite directions. Travel plans are not well supported, or business cooperation is hindered. There may be a tendency for Yoko to be critical, discouraging, and apt to judgment. On the plus side, this aspect also reflects necessary restrictions and the awareness of proper boundaries. John may learn much from Yoko in the course of the relationship. In a romantic context, this aspect may enhance and deepen your connection by providing stability, but there can also be difficulties between you, where one feels belittled or criticized, or has goals that remain unmet. The effect of Yoko may be to slow down and present obstacles to the aims and ideas of John which can also be undermining to John's self-confidence.

Growth is possible, but only through shared agreements well thought out. The experience of delays or resistance can build better connections and longer-term plans, but this requires spiritual maturity. There are many obstacles to overcome, and there may be health risks or other challenges to get past, so both partners need the discipline to move through it and forge a bond with each other.

Yoko's Neptune in strong sextile
(within 0.5 degrees) with John's Mercury

The planetary energies flow together, open into new possibilities, new connections.

This aspect, of Mercury in flowing relation with partner's Neptune, inspires and spiritualizes your relationship. Sharing discoveries in music or the arts may well provide encouragement, inspiration, and support for each other. Telepathy and intuition, imagination, and sympathy are part of your partnership make-up. It may be that Yoko idealizes the intellectual accomplishments of John. In a romantic context, this aspect inclines towards dream sharing, telepathy, feeling of empathy, sensitivity, and artistic brilliance together, or shared by one to the other. You will enjoy spiritual vitality in your relationship, combining intuition and mind, and also sympathetic support for each other. Fantasy may play a part in your shared experience. You may well find work in the arts, or hospitals, or other institutions of service together. In terms of personal transformation, movement is possible where John works in a more creative or spiritual direction, while Yoko, who may be more the dreamer in the relationship, becomes more logical and decisive through the partnership interaction. Together, your ability to serve and give to each other and others is enhanced.

Yoko's Venus in strong square
(within 0.1 degrees) with John's Jupiter

The planetary energies conflict; internal and creative tensions bring rich rewards through effort over time.

In this aspect, Venus in square with Jupiter, is the indication of abundance and perhaps excessive emotional exuberance in your relationship. There is the promise of good fortune materially, or possibly there could also be some degree of waste or excess. It really is up to how the partners work with the energy, whether you choose to take the high road. Finances should be closely watched, and excess controlled. Both of you are likely to do well with this aspect, and gain spiritually and even materially. There is every indication of warmth and real enjoyment between you, and happy times for this partnership. In a romantic context, this aspect indicates good intentions between you, and the joy of sharing, although there may be a disregard for checks and balances. You may encounter some freedom of lovemaking style or partnership agreement, expanded sensuality, or increased exuberance between you, perhaps leading to an attraction to love affairs, or merely to desiring a sense of drama in your lives together. Also indicated is generosity, sometimes to a fault, as well as the desire for luxuries, extremes of feeling, perhaps wild disregard for discipline. You do well to rein expectations in and strive for balanced and carefully slow growth and progress together.

Yoko's Venus in strong square (within 0.6 degrees) with John's Saturn

The planetary energies conflict; internal and creative tensions bring rich rewards through effort over time.

This aspect, of Venus in square with partner's Saturn, can be difficult for partnerships in that control, or spending limits may occur. Values are not shared between the partners, and one may try to exercise more control or judgment over aesthetics than the other. Although a stable bond may also be indicated, the partnership may really be put to the test through restrictions, demands, or other acts of selfishness. Setbacks in economics are possible, or perhaps a sense of not living up to expectations. In a romantic connection, this is generally a hard aspect for long-term growth or love, and rather may be experienced as a lack of affection or romantic feeling. In a more positive expression, the practicality and groundedness of John may serve to stabilize the relationship, although not without cost to the warmth and amiable nature of Yoko, who in turn may be seen as frivolous by the more serious and sober-minded John. This aspect represents is a severe challenge to any relationship, although love and purpose can survive, and even thrive, if you agree to terms.

Yoko's Mars in strong trine (within 1.4 degrees) with John's Jupiter

The planetary energies flow smoothly; the connection is easy and beneficial.

This aspect of Mars in flowing relation with partner's Jupiter indicates enhanced physical abundance and cooperative synergy between you. These planets work extremely well together since they both partake of the nature of the Fire element, representing enhanced movement to act and a better understanding of that action. Forcefulness and reason combine well, and this aspect symbolizes the positive stimulation of mutual ambition and lends an air of beneficial helpfulness to partnership activities. Work associations between you are likely to involve both energy and intelligence. This mutual excitement can cause problems only in that a tendency to relax or miss points of precision could occur in your exuberance to move into positive territory too quickly. In a romantic context, you unfold expressions of great ecstasy, optimistic exuberance, positive freedom, and physical enjoyment. You will find the partnership possesses confidence born of zeal and enthusiasm. You are inclined to be open and frank with each other, fundamentally wise and energetic in your decision-making. This is a happy and active connection, especially helpful in marriage. You share athletics, the enjoyment of nature and recreation together as well as congenial exciting friendships. This aspect indicates a healthy sense of expansion and higher vision between you. The partnership will benefit from the ability to dream and from the energy required to make those dreams a reality.

Yoko's Mars in strong trine (within 1.9 degrees) with John's Saturn

The planetary energies flow smoothly; the connection is easy and beneficial.

This aspect of Mars in flowing relation with partner's Saturn reflects a grounded sense of purpose and positive energy for the execution of mutual goals of the partnership. This aspect represents practical and effective action and the combining of energy toward a specific purpose. There may be restraint and control of Yoko by John, but John also supplies needed discipline. The balance can be quite effective. You will find cooperation with each other in working towards common goals with a good sense of enterprising energy. In a romantic context, you may find passion somewhat controlled, or amusement and lightness not easily visible between you. This aspect is more of a chime with work and duty or some burden you may need to take on together, and yet your relationship is quite effective in long-term function, stability, and balance. The partnership's drive for action and wise sense of caution combine easily, producing the best use of self-expression to make excellent progress toward shared goals.

Sun, Moon, Rising Sign Features

Yoko's Uranus in strong conjunction (within 0.7 degrees) with John's Ascendant

The strongest blend of the energies represented by these two planets.

This aspect, of Uranus conjunct or opposite partner's Ascendant, indicates that there is some special appeal between you, in which one partner stimulates, enlivens, and excites the ideas of the other. This relationship will be full of surprises, innovations, and exciting new experiences and ideas. The effect may be to broaden your viewpoints, as you exchange ideas in a world-oriented context supportive of multi-cultural understanding. Friendships and group associations are also found in this connection, as is a sense of altruism and mutuality. Yoko tends to bring more of these effects to the relationship, while John enjoys the unique stimulation. Unusual and rebellious actions by both of you, and eclectic tastes are definitely encouraged. In a romantic context, this aspect indicates a strong attraction and playful cooperation in your relationship. You are in for progressive unique fun and inventiveness, although with Uranian energy in the mix, it is also possible that some detached or cool exterior is maintained. This aspect also symbolizes mutual interests in science and technology, film, as well as other world cultural or universal new age activities. The urge is there for your partnership to be unique in some way. You may depart from accepted modes or beliefs, or focus on the different and the unconventional. There is also the possibility of some sort of instability between you or perhaps a lack of control and excess of freedom that can prove detrimental to the partnership. Changes are to be expected, and erratic behavior can also lead to discoveries for both partners. It may be that this relationship has a higher purpose of shaking you up and stretching you in some new way that proves vital for your growth and evolution as a human being. It is helpful to be open and upbeat and to try not to control the more independent partner, who after all may be leading the two of you to some truly special and mind-stretching experiences.

Yoko's Pluto in strong square (within 1.7 degrees) with John's Ascendant

The planetary energies conflict; internal and creative tensions bring rich rewards through effort over time.

This aspect, of Pluto in square with partner's Ascendant, indicates a powerful and somewhat dangerous interaction between the partners. It signals potential authoritative control on the part of one partner that can become manipulative, or turn into bullying; even violence is possible. There is some deep level of connection between you which works for change in each of you, as relatively unconscious behaviors surface and potentially explode. You may keenly feel the depth and limitation of life as a result of this interaction and this relationship may force you to seek a radical departure from old patterns. In a romantic context, this aspect represents a contact that is strongly, even overwhelmingly, powerful, sensual, and passionate in sexual expression. You may feel a magnetic attraction for each other, or some sense of having known each other in a past life or another form of depth connection. This is a difficult aspect, indicating will and passion, and also some degree of conflict, between you. There may be a reforming attitude on the part of one of you, and obsession or other excessive behavior is also possible, such as drug dependency, or burdens between you enforced and not readily agreed upon. Or the sensual nature of one partner may not be well received by the other. This relationship is not well-suited to peaceful interaction, nor quiet resolutions. There are likely to be issues of ego, or the direction one partner takes may appear selfish to the other. There are many difficulties to be worked through, including the possibility of deceit, or friction and resistance to authority that may lead to vindictive behavior. Karmic patterns may arise, accompanied by deep psychic changes. It may be that burdens of health, or body, slow down your plans, or that physical concerns outweigh career decisions or life direction. As you work through these issues you may decide to give up the battle, or else you may discover untapped sources of strength as your partnership evolves, bringing a renewed confidence, and awareness of your true path. Change is inevitable through your relationship, as you confront to replace those portions of behavior that have outgrown their usefulness. These secretive and withheld areas can become destructive forces, or else can become issues to be worked through together. If you can overcome these drawbacks, as a partnership, you will learn the depth of your own true nature, of your ability to evolve and grow in any circumstance.

Other Comparison Aspects

Yoko's Mercury in strong sextile
(within 0.8 degrees) with John's Midheaven

and Yoko's Midheaven in strong trine (within 0.9 degrees) with John's Mercury.

Since your and your partner's complementary planets follow the same pattern, this aspect is greatly emphasized in your reading. Pay special attention to the following material!

The planetary energies flow smoothly; the connection is easy and beneficial.

This aspect, of Mercury in flowing relation with partner's Midheaven, gives you an excellent basis for communication, especially regarding partnership goals and objectives. You work together well in a helpful and detail-oriented partnership, which may involve educational or other work with young people. John is likely to be the more able communicator, who brings precision and effort, while Yoko holds space for leadership and focus. Public works, media, and civic duties could all be involved, and also the implicit understanding between you of your shared purpose. In a romantic context, you enjoy the benefits of excellent communication skills with each other, as well as good conversation, directed and on target for practical effect. There is at least some degree of intellectual pursuit in the relationship mix, and you may well have educational goals as a partnership. You may have met through school, or in some other educational format, or via computer work. Siblings and friends could also be connected to the purpose you share. In any case, you can expect order and precision in your relationship, along with meaningful and productive exchanges with each other.

Yoko's Neptune in strong trine (within 2.0 degrees) with John's Midheaven

The planetary energies flow smoothly; the connection is easy and beneficial.

This aspect, of Neptune in flowing relation with partner's Midheaven gives you a good basis for spiritual endeavors with each other. Your partnership is aligned with mystical purpose, involving potentially the arts, drama, music, perhaps areas of the occult or psychic powers, and healing. Together, your intuition is applied to your objectives, which may be artistic or spiritual, or within some area of service to life, such as in the healing professions. Mutual support for each other is implied, and also creative effort and there may be a sense of sacrifice or burdens which you feel necessary to maintain together, but these turn into joys with the compassion that comes through shared inspiration and service. In a romantic context, you encounter loving support and spiritual values in your relationship, a calm, congenial feeling that sustains life goals not depending on material manifestation. It is likely that Yoko is the more dreamy, spiritual, and idealistic, while John represents the provider of focus and direction, although there is also the possibility of a transference effect that reverses these attributes. You are extremely sensitive to each other's emotions, and there can be telepathic support for each other, with much idealism and mutual devotion. Spiritual and creative purposes are brought together in a truly compassionate and service-oriented union in which you reach out to others as well.

Yoko's Chiron in strong conjunction (within 1.8 degrees) with John's Uranus

The strongest blend of the energies represented by these two planets.

With this inter-aspect, of Uranus conjunct partner's Chiron, in this relationship, there are likely to be many occurrences of sudden intuitional flashes that come up between you, which lead each of you to a better understanding of your internal wounding, the likely residue of early childhood trauma. Becoming more self-aware is an important first step in handling these early wounds, and greater understanding does lead to healing. It might also be that one of you has an intense wild part of yourself that gets dampened down or goes undercover in the context of the partnership. There might be a non-conformist side that does not often manifest, or that manifests ambiguously. As you join in partnership, partly you want to take off the mask of normalcy, and yet partly the two of you together might also exhibit a desire to retain it as a defensive cover that keeps you safe. It could also be that, when together, each of you may become better aware of your non-conformist side, and how you wind up at times suppressing your uniqueness.

Yoko's Ascendant in strong square
(within 1.4 degrees) with John's Midheaven

The planetary energies conflict; internal and creative tensions bring rich rewards through effort over time.

Yoko's Sun in quintile
(within 2.3 degrees) with John's Jupiter

The planetary energies are positively linked, subtle, and spiritual in dimension.

With this aspect, of Sun in flowing relation with partner's Jupiter, you can expect a joyous and expansive connection with one another. You will likely come into a wondrous awareness of purpose, perception, and vision together, leading to new levels of trust and faith between you. Significant journeys may be undertaken together, or perhaps time spent to positively re-evaluate goals and concrete expressions of your shared enthusiasm for life. This aspect symbolizes increased play, joy, childlike nature, the desire for humor, sharing of all you have, while pursuing religious, educational, or outdoor activities with each other. It is good to remember to avoid excess. In a romantic connection there is exceptional joy, abundance, bounty, and wisdom in your relationship. You share similar motivations, and release freedom and expansion in each other, permitting great enjoyment, enthusiasm, and gregariousness together. The creative dynamic between you is strong. Something in your relationship allows, supports, and enthuses over your joint purpose together. Your relationship encourages exuberant exchanges of ideas with each other, and is productive of wisdom and positive understanding, with opportunity, good fortune, and good possibilities for wild and uninhibited pleasure. You enjoy shared abundance, with John perhaps giving more to Yoko, and taking pleasure in Yoko's enjoyment of the gifts. Together, you will find optimism and a sense of fair play in your relationship.

Yoko's Sun in quintile
(within 1.8 degrees) with John's Saturn

The planetary energies are positively linked, subtle, and spiritual in dimension.

With this aspect, of Sun to partner's Saturn, you may find awareness of limitations and responsibilities, and a sense of significance or fatedness that comes from being with each other. The two of you together can be very dependable and productive. Some restructuring will occur for Yoko, who may learn needed lessons of discipline through John. In a romantic connection, this aspect symbolizes much wisdom and practical caring for each other, which is good support for a long-term commitment such as marriage. There is likely to be a good balance of energy from work into play, and creativity into directed concentrated effort, as each of you leads the other into joyous responsibilities, and responsible joys. There may be an implication of necessary boundaries expressed in your partnership. With this aspect, also, you will find practical wisdom and even leadership to high degrees. This can be a sobering connection between you, but one which enhances both partners' empowerment and purpose. Sometimes these roles get reversed, but generally speaking, Yoko gives light to, and is allowing and forgiving toward John, and John serves to facilitate the greater focus of Yoko's more widespread and expansive consciousness.

Yoko's Sun in inconjunct (within 3.3 degrees) with John's Neptune

The planetary energies do not flow smoothly, one or the other predominates; discrimination must be employed.

This aspect, of Sun in flowing relation with partner's Neptune, symbolizes a sensitive, compassionate and supportive connection between you. Your partnership is likely to be strongly spiritual as well as artistically creative. There is a sense of giving and support on the part of John for Yoko. Sensitive and telepathic, you share interests, as John provides nurturing for the creative fire of Yoko, while Yoko gives light and leadership to the more variable John. You are creative together, without need for detail or technique, and share a caretaking sympathy for one another as well as for mankind at large, and for that matter, for life in general, but without a sense of duty or obligation. Your relationship may well provide spiritual leadership for others. In a romantic context, this aspect indicates a spiritual, artistic, sympathetic, and sensual connection, that feeds strength and creativity into your partnership. You feel and empathize together, enjoying mutual passions, and may use imagination in your lovemaking. Both of you share the feeling of being taken care of in this relationship. There may be a sense of a psychic link with each other, or of feeling harmonized by higher senses, which may take you to fantasy and imagination worlds together. You will always enjoy film, arts, and artistic creativity with each other. Your lives together are likely to be sympathetically responsive and spiritually satisfying.

Yoko's Sun in inconjunct (within 1.2 degrees) with John's Chiron

The planetary energies do not flow smoothly, one or the other predominates; discrimination must be employed.

This inter-aspect, of Sun in flowing aspect to partner's Chiron, leads to a certain degree of spiritual healing between you. For one or both of you, issues may come up concerning self-image and self-worth, or the possibility of a wounded early relationship with your father or they with theirs. If so, these types of concerns may be an important factor in your relationship connection. There is a natural tendency in the case of a romantic relationship with a father wound present, to try to in some way act out the troubled relationship in this new situation, with this partner, so that these types of issues could well arise for discussion and subsequent healing. If they do, the best approach will likely be one that goes to depth, and to acceptance of your partner's situation, as well as your willingness to share your own. There is a way that a partner's inner wounds, the result of early childhood trauma, is a significant part of themselves that needs attention and healing presence, and this aspect indicates that such a healing presence may well be found within this relationship. Important healing can take place between you, and yet you must also recognize that it will take acceptance of each other's basic humanity, wounds and all, if that is to be possible.

Yoko's Moon in sextile
(within 5.1 degrees) with John's Sun
Angular planet - conjunct Descendant

The planetary energies flow together, open into new possibilities, new connections.

With the Sun and Moon in flowing relation between your two charts, you have a good connection with each other. This aspect symbolizes a great deal of closeness and shared interests between you. You will enjoy conscious awareness of your emotional states, with lots of nurturing, and open feelings, desire for comforts, and bonding together, especially within a home or other secure environment. In a romantic context, this is a wonderful connection, for warmth, camaraderie, pleasurable exchanges, and strong affinity. You like each other, and feel comfortable and comforted, with a likelihood of long-term union or at least friendship. This aspect makes for real identity-merging and loving feelings between you. It symbolizes passion and romantic feeling, a harmony of goals and unconditional sharing, strong emotional bonding, perhaps a marriage or the equivalent. The family may come together through you, or you may build a family and children together. There is a sense of fairness and equality, with loyalty, protectiveness, and working for security. John tends to be the stronger, with Yoko the more devoted or giving. Although problems may arise with both of you wishing to be in control, these issues are usually resolved through the same pattern of giving and receiving, with each appreciating the unique qualities of the other. You may discover considerable enjoyment of things of the past or history, as well as general enthusiasm together. Since the Moon is involved, each of your feminine and softer sides will likely be brought forward by this relationship.

Yoko's Moon in inconjunct (within 2.6 degrees) with John's Jupiter

The planetary energies do not flow smoothly, one or the other predominates; discrimination must be employed.

This aspect, of the Moon in flowing relation with partner's Jupiter, indicates increased enjoyment, beneficial cooperation, and expansion of goals and plans with each other. Spiritual feelings are likely to be included in this partnership. There is a strong and positive optimistic feeling between you and a natural expectation of the ideal, that only occasionally leads to excess. John may bring some great gift or abundance into Yoko's life, and the nurturing and support provided by Yoko will be expanded and uplifted by the actions of John. There is an element of down-to-earth practicality mingled with abundant and optimistic nature and the sense of knowledge well shared. In a romantic context, this is a most positive connection that expands, enthuses, enlivens, supports, and nurtures you. Your romance is based on ecstatic friendship, with a good rapport and a strong inclination to exuberance. You enjoy each other fully and understand each other's feelings, leading to good possibilities for peaceful home life. Positive and glowing, this is joy proclaimed, as you encounter feelings of freedom with each other, and partake of both a practical and a broader viewpoint together. Your relationship may engender the pursuit of knowledge and the world at large, perhaps of history or the past in some way. You are likely to travel well and enjoy the outdoors, as well as your family environment and relations. This is a very positive aspect, productive of spiritual wisdom, fantasy, and good nature in general.

Yoko's Moon in quintile (within 3.1 degrees) with John's Neptune

The planetary energies are positively linked, subtle, and spiritual in dimension.

This aspect, of the Moon in flowing relation with partner's Neptune, represents a relationship of great sensitivity and mutual rapport. The Moon and Neptune are indicators of nurturing and sharing, although in different ways, and both of you will give a great deal of support and encouragement to the other, in a partnership based on spiritual intuition, mutual sharing, and a sense of loyal devotion to each other. Also included in your relationship is shared creativity in the arts, or music, perhaps caring for the sick and elderly, or for other disadvantaged groups. In a romantic context, this aspect indicates a spiritual love, with sympathy and compassion between you, feeling strongly supportive of each other in creative or artistic ways. This flows like water, with mutual understanding and sensitive receptivity to each other's moods. You may feel a genuine empathy between you, an intuitive telepathic connection with each other, and you may find psychic receptivity to others as well, such as friends and family. When working together, you may also find yourselves to be more forgiving and compassionate toward the world at large, more willing to do things for other people. You may also encounter a tendency to fantasize or live in a world of illusions, and might do well to set some limits for yourselves in this regard. But limits arising out of what you feel is right; not what others demand of you. Together, you are likely to find areas of service to others, such as in spiritual institutions, or with the arts and music.

Yoko's Mars in semi-square (within 0.4 degrees) with John's Chiron

The planetary energies conflict in determined subtle tension; calmness is required.

This inter-aspect of Mars in dynamic aspect with partner's Chiron indicates that there are likely to be anger incidences between the partners, leading to outbursts or fights, due to each individual's hidden wounds being triggered. There can be displays of anger that had formerly been long suppressed and this can be cathartic. It might require hard work and a great deal of acceptance to bring healing about, but the results will show the worth of this effort, long-term. The important factor in this, so that healing can take place, is that each partner becomes as clear as possible about taking ownership for their inner wounding that is revealed in this way. After this is acknowledged, the fundamental respect and regard that the partners have for each other can become more fully beneficial. It is obviously helpful if the two of you can recognize that any anger that emerges from time to time between you is a natural emotion, to be worked with rather than avoided so that you can move toward greater integration of the dark places within you.

Yoko's Jupiter in inconjunct (within 0.8 degrees) with John's Ascendant

The planetary energies do not flow smoothly, one or the other predominates; discrimination must be employed.

This aspect of Jupiter in flowing relation with partner's Ascendant represents abundance and joy, wisdom and expansiveness. There is trust, optimism, faith, openings for material wealth, and spiritual understanding between you. Both partners will support and bring abundance to each other with the freedom to expand their individual horizons as well. In a romantic context, you feel joyful and fortunate together. You have the graceful urge to harmonize and blend with each other, and to explore religious, philosophical, or spiritual values together. You may benefit greatly from travel to distant shores or just from a wide-ranging discourse that touches on many subject areas and interests. There is a wise and buoyant idealism that you share with each other. You are confident, adventurous, and socially gregarious together with abundant energy for physical activities, nature, and the passion for life. This aspect represents an exceptionally positive and open connection productive of higher wisdom and the joy of just being together.

Yoko's Saturn in square
(within 4.0 degrees) with John's Jupiter

The planetary energies conflict; internal and creative tensions bring rich rewards through effort over time.

Yoko's Saturn in square
(within 3.5 degrees) with John's Saturn

The planetary energies conflict; internal and creative tensions bring rich rewards through effort over time.

This aspect, of Saturn in square with partner's Saturn, highlights practical duty and responsibility between the members of the partnership. There can also be difficulty, restriction, lack of openness, and the harsh reality of not getting much support outwardly, or even just together, and thus requiring you to overcome obstacles, or work harder for what you get. The area of signs and elements reveals the focal point of these issues. If you can work through these difficulties, that fact may allow your respect for each other to grow through that very area that enforces joint effort. Work and business are effective in your connection, and meeting obligations. In a romantic relationship, You benefit from trying to increase hope and optimism despite the negative elements of the picture, in self-confidence beyond worry, or lack of vision. There may be a somber or sober tone that you take with each other, which perhaps could result from conflicts in attitude, different senses of what is responsible and effective, and how to make a constructive effort together. There may be disciplines strongly applied by one of you against the other, and a resultant handicapping of progress. Reactions of worry doubt and lack of confidence may arise. You need to apply hope, optimism, and general sense of purpose, or this can cause many devitalizing emotions in your relationship. You benefit from trying to stay on track and perhaps locating the best way to handle the serious or difficulty together by taking separate sides and working towards the middle.

Yoko's Saturn in quintile (within 1.8 degrees) with John's Ascendant

The planetary energies are positively linked, subtle, and spiritual in dimension.

This aspect, of Saturn in flowing relation with partner's Ascendant, indicates a practical side to the relationship that can feel like a limitation, duty, or burdens of some kind. This represents a purposeful interaction but also indicates some form of perhaps self-imposed discipline experienced by the partners. The imposed control is likely felt most strongly by John, although it may be the other way around. The discipline and restriction engendered by this partnership can be supportive and productive as well, and helpful in working through problems together. In a romantic context, your relationship is inclined towards the serious effort, and practicality, even in romance, such as having stable agreements and workable conditions, and it may be quite productive, supporting a long-term bond with each other. There is likely a tendency toward practical and effective daily function, forcing one partner to produce or to insure the relationship in some way. The ability to bear burdens and share tasks with each other is part of all this, and your relationship is likely to excel with this aspect.

Yoko's Neptune in trine (within 4.1 degrees) with John's Saturn

other people as well. Areas of focus may include bringing into accord spirituality and business or work in the healing professions. In a romantic context, you are helpful and supportive of each other's needs. John may be the more practical partner, who keeps focus and makes effective use of partnership energy, while Yoko has the will to serve and give to their partner. John may impose limits, while the more giving and spiritual Yoko will accept this point of view with tolerance. There is a sanctuary for you both in this arrangement. With this aspect, you also may find illusions regarding partnership agreements, or issues of over-dependency, or inhibitions, or simply that one person does not acknowledge the boundaries of the other. Your relationship has a great ability to forgo problem areas, bear burdens, tolerate conditions, and you may feel the need to spiritually restructure yourselves in response to this relationship.

Yoko's Pluto in square
(within 5.4 degrees) with John's Sun
Angular planet - conjunct Descendant

The planetary energies conflict; internal and creative tensions bring rich rewards through effort over time.

This aspect, of Sun in square with partner's Pluto, symbolizes transformation and radical change as an important part of your relationship. It signals potential major life changes, with empowerment and growth for both partners, although there may be unconscious antagonisms between you which are difficult although very rewarding to work out. Authoritative control on the part of one partner can become manipulative, or turn into bullying. There is some deep level of connection that works for change in each of you, as relatively unconscious behaviors surface and potentially explode. As you work through these issues you may decide to give up the battle, or else you may discover untapped sources of strength as your partnership evolves, bringing a renewed confidence, and awareness of your true path. In a romantic context, this aspect represents a contact that is strongly even overwhelmingly powerful, sensual and passionate in sexual expression. This is a difficult aspect, indicating will and passion, and also some degree of conflict, within the partnership. There are likely to be issues of ego between you, or the direction one partner takes may appear selfish to the other. There may be a reforming attitude on the part of one of the partners, and obsession or other excessive behavior is also possible. You may also feel a magnetic attraction for each other and may feel some sense of having known each other in a past life or other depth connection. There are difficulties to be worked through, however, including the possibility of deceit within the partnership, or friction and resistance to authority may lead to vindictive behavior. These secretive and withheld areas can become destructive forces, or else can become issues to be worked through together. This can be incredibly challenging, but still, you can overcome these drawbacks, as a partnership, and learn the depth of your true nature, of your ability to evolve and grow in any circumstance. Change is inevitable through your relationship, as you confront to replace those portions of behavior that have outgrown their usefulness.

Yoko's Pluto in quintile
(within 1.0 degrees) with John's Mars
Ruler of Rising Sign

The planetary energies are positively linked, subtle, and spiritual in dimension.

This aspect of Mars in flowing relation with partner's Pluto encourages a broad focus with passion, drive, and ambition to succeed between you. Your partnership is likely to be productive of physical manifestations such as mechanics and engineering research, or assistance in business and promotional areas. There also may be political sharing or other work involving civic affairs. Strength and raw power are indicated between you. This implies the need to take some degree of care lest the fire gets out of control. The depth of focus between you can bring you to a powerful determination to work with each other. In a romantic context, this aspect symbolizes deep passion and drive. Your interchange may be very physical and at times aggressive. There are indications of obstacles overcome, objectives realized, and strong active pursuit of sexuality. This can imply anger or conflict but also is good for drawing forth your true feelings and bringing about a required examination of your relationship issues. The shared cooperation can be challenging but also outstanding.

Yoko's Pluto in sextile
(within 3.9 degrees) with John's Uranus

The planetary energies flow together, open into new possibilities, new connections.

This aspect, of Uranus in flowing relation with Pluto, reflects a mutual interest in the partnership for group endeavor towards specific goals, and humanitarian effort. There is likely to be an emphasis in your relationship on social conscience, and testing of the group psyche. There may be a rebellious attitude that you both share, which encourages versatility and self-expression into unknown or unexplored realms. You feel the nature of ageless wisdom coming through you, giving you a strong push to support each other in progress toward transformation.

Yoko's Chiron in trine (within 2.3 degrees) with John's Neptune

The planetary energies flow smoothly; the connection is easy and beneficial.

With this inter-aspect, of Neptune in aspect with partner's Chiron, in this relationship, issues could arise of shying away from everyday existence in favor of imaginal worlds beyond this one. There could be wounds regarding this type of alienation that have arisen in the life of one or both of you that somehow seek resolution through this partnership connection. You may find that, in the context of this relationship, you might have to deal with a tendency toward escapism, when the details of life sometimes seem almost too oppressive to bear. You will want to acknowledge this issue rather than brushing it under the rug, and yet you must also strive, by viewing your partner with compassionate sympathy and love, to achieve together a better balance between 3D physical reality and the equally valid world of dream imagination.

Yoko's Chiron in quintile (within 1.6 degrees) with John's Pluto

The planetary energies are positively linked, subtle, and spiritual in dimension.

With this inter-aspect, of Pluto in aspect with partner's Chiron, in this relationship, there is a tendency for issues to come up between you of compulsivity, authority, power, and control. It could be that one or both of you has an issue such as this, stemming from early childhood trauma, when authority was misapplied, or not always in the child's best interest, and this complex within your personality can become exacerbated by the shared activity of your partnership connection. It could also be that, together, each of you may become better aware of these types of issues by a difficult process of having to deal with them in the context of the relationship. As you become more aware of your individual contribution to this difficult dynamic between you, constructive awareness grows that will allow you to move toward healing.

Yoko's Ascendant in trine (within 5.0 degrees) with John's Moon

The planetary energies flow smoothly; the connection is easy and beneficial.

This aspect, of the Moon in flowing relation with partner's Ascendant represents a strong emotional connection and reflects your desire as a partnership for comfort and security. You protect and take care of each other and increase each other's well-being, with a strong sense of family bond between you. In a romantic context, your passions and emotional perspectives are shared, for growth aligned with family goals, and enhanced by a beneficial feeling of camaraderie. This aspect symbolizes harmony and strength in your relationship. You tune in to each other's needs, with John stronger in nurturing while Yoko brings light and service to the partnership. Your emotional natures are similar, and you feel happy and nurtured in just being with each other. Family is an important part of your union, as well as children or the creative offspring of some shared purpose. Together you have a workable and dependable connection that promotes mutual healing.

Yoko's Ascendant in semi-sextile (within 0.1 degrees) with John's Mercury

The planetary energies attract each other, require effort, allow entry of new information.

This aspect, of Mercury in minor dynamic relation with partner's Ascendant represents a degree of mental challenge or cross stimulation between the two of you. Criticism by one partner for the other and verbal disputes between you is possible. There is also the possibility of pursuing creative outlets together, such as in information fields, creative writing, or perhaps in media analysis. In a romantic context, you enjoy sharing in arts or entertainment fields. You readily communicate with each other, and will have many lively and stimulating discussions together, although there may be issues of poor communication that does not link well with your partnership goals, or missed opportunities, perhaps some area of disagreement between you such as mind versus desire and action, or over-thinking of details. You benefit by attempting to really understand your partner, even when they are feeling and thinking quite differently from you.

Yoko's Midheaven in sextile

(within 3.8 degrees) with John's Saturn

The planetary energies flow together, open into new possibilities, new connections.

This aspect, of Saturn in flowing relation to partner's Midheaven, indicates a relationship with a strong practical basis, in which you feel comfortable with each other's goals and achievements. This is very good for mutual business plans and objectives. John will tend to have a stabilizing, perhaps limiting, effect on the partnership, while Yoko provides necessary vision. There is perseverance and long-term stability implied by this interaction. John may take on the role of a mentor or teacher for Yoko, and foster slow and steady progress toward better and more complete accomplishments in the long run. In a romantic connection, this aspect indicates a relationship that is serious and also highly practical, with the sense of working through limitations to reach goals, perseverance, and long-term considerations. Business interests and practical life functions may predominate, and a high degree of stability is indicated, which creates a lasting bond between you. This type of interaction, while not easy or light-hearted, can help you work together naturally and efficiently, especially if there are also lighter moments and good nature between you. Structure and workable planning are called for, and also perhaps letting go of ego-investment. But the public rise to achievement and development of life objectives are likely to be enhanced overall.

Yoko's Midheaven in semi-square (within 1.1 degrees) with John's Uranus

The planetary energies conflict in determined subtle tension; calmness is required.

This aspect, of Uranus in minor dynamic relation with partner's Midheaven, may make for disorder, or lack of agreement between the partners, perhaps with one wishing to conserve, the other to innovate. This relationship also has the potential for very wide acceptance, good friendship, and broad-minded viewpoints between you. You come together intending to change humanity, and alert the world to new visions. The technological, scientific, and multi-cultural hold appeal for you and work in these areas is supported. In a romantic context, this aspect indicates a relationship that is mildly offsetting and may be impersonal, as outside conditions could be the cause of disorder or complications between you. The practical in your relationship does not mix well with changing conditions, yet the combination can produce insight and many unique attributes of productive work. Unusual success can come through your involvement with each other. It is best not to try to control or limit the freedoms and unique character of your partner by forcing them into old habits or directions. This relationship needs space and openness to work well.

Yoko's Midheaven in opposition
(within 2.3 degrees) with John's Midheaven

The planetary energies are polarized; outer events stimulate their interaction; integration is the challenge.

Yoko's Moon in weak square
(within 7.9 degrees) with John's Venus
Ruler of sun sign - Sun's ruler

and Yoko's Venus in weak conjunction (within 10.2 degrees) with John's Moon.

Since your and your partner's complementary planets follow the same pattern, this aspect is greatly emphasized in your reading. Pay special attention to the following material!

The planetary energies conflict; internal and creative tensions bring rich rewards through effort over time.

With this aspect, of the Moon in square with partner's Venus, you have a good rapport and an enduring emotional sympathy with each other but there may be ways in which you also operate at cross-purposes in these areas. You may over-indulge each other, or one may give what the other does not wish for. Your partnership may involve aesthetic sensibilities since the energy is there for artistic creativity together. Jewelry, the arts, and all things feminine come into the picture with this aspect. In a romantic context, this aspect inclines to friendly support and connection between you, although you may encounter some form of excess or over-giving in your relationship. There can be domestic discord, or family intrusions, perhaps petty jealousy between you. Your tastes may vary, or finances may not be readily agreed upon. Sincere adjustments made with affection and a friendly attitude can enable your relationship to work. Your connection has good feelings for each other, mutual sharing, nurture, and loyalty for each other, as well as some degree of difficulty that needs working through.

Yoko's Mercury in weak opposition
(within 4.7 degrees) with John's Venus
Ruler of sun sign - Sun's ruler

and Yoko's Venus in weak square (within 5.2 degrees) with John's Mercury.

Since your and your partner's complementary planets follow the same pattern, this aspect is greatly emphasized in your reading. Pay special attention to the following material!

The planetary energies are polarized; outer events stimulate their interaction; integration is the challenge.

This aspect of Mercury in opposition with partner's Venus represents congenial sharing, with communication and creativity from different perspectives highlighted. This is a strong aspect for mutual self-expression, artistic creativity, and enjoyment. You have different points of view on aesthetic matters and can bring these differences into a healthy mix in which the two points of view are each represented, although there is also a chance that you may operate at cross-purposes over these types of issues. You travel together well, with an appreciation of beauty and a sense of warmth between you, and generally, there will be an agreement in support of each other's aesthetic choices. In a love connection, this aspect indicates loads of romantic appeal between you, with shared response and expressions of beauty, of flowers delivered, or marks of affection in words of beautiful sentiment. Also indicated is a generally shared pleasure of conversation, enjoyment of film and writing, or the arts. Friends and lovers both, you share a sense of greater pleasure within some positive vision, as long as you allow for each other's differing tastes and style. In business, you can expect shared cooperation and blending of different styles leading to success and achievement together. Both partners will likely show an admirable willingness to support and sympathize with each other.

Yoko's Jupiter in weak conjunction (within 5.3 degrees) with John's Neptune

The strongest blend of the energies represented by these two planets.

This aspect of Jupiter in conjunction with partner's Neptune makes for a highly spiritual as well as creative, sensitive, and intuitive partnership. There is likely to be a strong psychic connection between you. There is also idealism, realization of plans and aspirations, and artistic creativity, possibly religious or philosophical activities or acts of charity. In a romantic context, you give to each other with good intentions and generous support, and open acceptance of the other's weaknesses. You can also perhaps experience problems with self-indulgence, such as time wasted in idle conversation or even drug use. There is also likely to be a propitious accumulation of wealth or honors received for charitable work performed. Any wealth or resources you bring to the relationship is shared between you. One partner, perhaps Yoko, provides a sense of wisdom and freedom, while John is giving and sensitive to Yoko's needs. This aspect helps the partnership to last and speaks to higher motivations between you.

Yoko's Saturn in weak opposition (within 5.6 degrees) with John's Pluto

The planetary energies are polarized; outer events stimulate their interaction; integration is the challenge.

This connection, of Saturn in dynamic aspect with partner's Pluto, represents a relationship that has a deep and serious side, and which may be transformative for both partners. There is a subtle tension involved that may not be obvious immediately, but which represents hidden emotions that are underlying your relationship, and which may reflect a karmic pattern or past-life connection with each other. These emotions may be expressed as resentment, or feelings of enmity may come up for one or both of you. There is a transformer and reformer within your relationship, which could be expressed by either partner, challenging you to rise above, work more effectively on inner issues, and enable your evolutionary progress. You have great energy for this struggle and will apply all the self-discipline that could be required in these dark matters, to bring them ultimately into the light. All this can make things seem quite serious, or may engender strong feelings of denial and limitation in connection with your partner, but in the end, for a specific purpose.

Yoko's Neptune in weak conjunction (within 5.9 degrees) with John's Venus Ruler of sun sign - Sun's ruler

The strongest blend of the energies represented by these two planets.

This aspect, of Venus in dynamic relation with partner's Neptune, represents an idealized connection between you. Your relationship may involve music, art, dance, spirituality, and areas of service. There is sympathy, and creativity, together with some aspect of the feminine. The empathy and support of Yoko are appreciated by John, who also provides some solid ground for Yoko, either financially or in some creative form. There can be a loss of good judgment, but this may be a blessing in disguise. The balance of spiritual energy with physical expression and earthly connection provides a beneficial conduit for the flow of higher purpose into ordinary life. In a romantic context, this sensitive aspect aligns with congenial empathy, idealized love, spiritual feeling, and artistic sharing. This aspect represents a heightened sensitivity in which both parties are almost magnetically attracted to each other. There is a bewitching and sometimes elusive quality to the connection. You will likely share feelings of elegance, grace, and charm just being around each other, and take pleasure in natural settings or the enjoyment of artistic events together. When social tendencies between you differ you may also need to allow each other to be just as you are, or you may need to guard against mutual self-indulgence. There is likely to be much sympathy between you, a truly compassionate consideration of your partner's needs in genuine loving surrender that may border on sacrifice. You could easily become spiritually inspired love partners and create a lasting bond of friendship and mutual respect.

Yoko's Pluto in weak opposition (within 11.9 degrees) with John's Moon

The planetary energies are polarized; outer events stimulate their interaction; integration is the challenge.

With this aspect, of the Moon in conjunction or opposition with partner's Pluto, there is a dark side to your relationship. You are coming together to do some serious healing, and you can expect intense emotions and the exposing of your most cherished and unknown secrets through this relationship, perhaps unknown even to your conscious mind. There may be a feeling of being together for some karmic purpose. Together you are both working toward an important process of change and emotional fulfillment, with John the one who does most of the transforming, while Yoko provides the catalytic energy for change. In a romantic context, this aspect symbolizes a powerful sexual contact between you, with a passion to explore each other's mysteries, and drive to higher purpose as well. The investigation into the depths of your being that this relationship initiates is worth the effort to dig down, the pain of being exposed. There is a serious soul purpose that brings you together for this wild spelunking adventure into the subterranean territory of your psyche. There may be a compulsive factor to your interaction, and you need to be careful of possessiveness or other forms of emotional control that could come up between you. Balance is important, with time out for calm and privately separate reactions to events. There may be walled-off feelings of rage and pain from early childhood, perhaps going back to issues with mother love or its lack, that come to light in the course of this relationship. You both are being asked to rise to the occasion, to process the material presenting itself to you, in your eternal quest for balance and wholeness so that your life may move forward. The patterns of the past will yield healing and transformative change if you allow them to.

Yoko's Ascendant in weak conjunction
(within 7.8 degrees) with John's Sun
Angular planet - conjunct Descendant

The strongest blend of the energies represented by these two planets.

This aspect, of Sun conjunct partner's Ascendant, is an important connection that promotes growth and vitality. You feel good about the connection with your partner, with potential for mutual benefit, and learning opportunities, with Yoko perhaps learning more than John. This aspect symbolizes a good degree of like-mindedness between you, with a feeling of new initiative, bonding in the name of character and shared values, and can help to shed light on your relationships with other people as well. In a romantic context, this aspect represents a strong feeling of familiarity between you with mutual attraction, chemistry, the draw of magnetic appeal. It also symbolizes the harmony of goals, perhaps general physical compatibility. You continually operate in some type of creative mode with each other. You bring light to one another, with a sense of beauty and physical appeal. You may have a mutual focus on appearance or fashion. You feel playful and uplifted and have a profound way of bringing out the best in each other. Your childlike natures are likely to come out through this relationship, and the potential for mutual enjoyment is high. This aspect promotes mutual well-being, energy, and vitality between you.

Yoko's Ascendant in weak conjunction
(within 5.8 degrees) with John's Mars
Ruler of Rising Sign

The strongest blend of the energies represented by these two planets.

This aspect of Mars conjunct or opposite partner's Ascendant symbolizes ample physical vitality, energy, enthusiasm, and personal drive in the partnership. Also, movement, athletics, and drive to action are encouraged, as well as the personal appeal and the self-expression of both partners. This aspect inclines toward doing joint projects together and sharing promotional activities, although overt competitiveness or displays of temper could prove counter-productive. In a romantic context, you are energized, alive, active, restless, and passionate with each other. The appeal and energy between you may be quite physical with plenty of motivation and drive. John brings the energy and Yoko the appeal and focus of expression to activate initiative and to be bold and adventuresome together as well. You may need to beware of a clash of wills between you as ego issues can make for a volatile relationship, but the exciting and dynamic energy between you can also uplift the partnership and spur you on to achievement. You can accomplish your aims together very well when you come at them from the highest of motivations.

Yoko's Midheaven in weak square
(within 6.9 degrees) with John's Sun
Angular planet - conjunct Descendant

The planetary energies conflict; internal and creative tensions bring rich rewards through effort over time.

This aspect, of the Sun in square with partner's Midheaven, indicates shared purpose and mutual objectives, usually with some recognition or rewards in creative areas, but with the possibility of conflicts over the direction of partnership activities. It is likely that one partner, perhaps Yoko, will provide leadership, while the other either goes along more or less willingly or else struggles against the impulse, getting into another area altogether, intending to stand independently, to be strong and able in their way. In a romantic connection, there is likely to be a strong attraction between you, although leadership or control issues may arise, over creative ideas, or of practical considerations, such as with children, or issues of duty versus entertainment. The possibility is also there for some authoritarian disagreements between you. Romance may be connected to business or public life. If you can find ways to cooperate and blend your separate viewpoints you will feel brighter, more playful, and alive to your shared purpose.

Glossary

Ascendant: The point in the sky of the Eastern horizon. In the chart, the Ascendant is represented by the horizontal line at the left hand side of the chart which crosses between the Twelfth and First Houses. The sign on the Ascendant is also referred to as the Rising Sign.

Aspects: When the relative positions of two planets in the horoscope form a significant angle with each other, they are said to be in aspect with one another. The type and quality of the aspect is determined by the number of degrees between the two planets and is only considered significant if it is within a narrow range of degrees, or orb. A list of the aspects used in this report is given below.

Conjunction — $0^{\circ} \pm 8$ degrees

Opposition — $180^{\circ} \pm 8$ degrees

Trine — $120^{\circ} \pm 8$ degrees

Square — $90^{\circ} \pm 8$ degrees

Sextile — $60^{\circ} \pm 6$ degrees

Inconjunct — $150^{\circ} \pm 4$ degrees

Chart Comparison: An astrological technique in which the planets of two individuals are shown in a bi-wheel chart, one within the other. This allows the inter-aspects between the two charts to be examined.

Composite Chart: An astrological technique in which the midpoints of two individuals' planetary positions are used to create a third chart, the composite chart, which is then interpreted as the chart of the relationship itself as an independent entity.

Horoscope: Originally horoscope referred to the astrological chart itself, but is now popularly used to refer to the description of how current planetary positions are affecting you personally, as in "your monthly horoscope."

Midheaven: The point in the sky directly overhead relative to the position on Earth. In the chart, the Midheaven is represented by the vertical line at the top of the chart between the Ninth and Tenth Houses.

Natal: From Latin, meaning of or pertaining to birth; therefore your birth chart, or planetary positions at birth.

Nodes: The Lunar Nodes are the two points where the Moon's orbital path crosses the plane of the ecliptic (the plane of the Earth's orbit around the Sun). Symbolically they represent talents and life path, or destiny.

Planets: In astrology, the word planets is used to describe astrologically significant points in the sky which includes the Sun and Moon, as well as many objects that are not currently astronomically defined as planets such as Chiron and Pluto.

Transits: Aspects formed between the current positions of the planets and the positions of your natal planets at the time and place you were born.
