

Soul Astrology eBook Report

With introduction and interpretation by Ruth Hadikin

For Robert De Niro

Born August 17th 1943 at 03:00am Brooklyn, Kings, NY, USA

Cancer Soul with a Leo/Pisces personality

What this report is, and what it's not...

This is a computer-generated report. The birth chart and interpretations were written by Ruth Hadikin and have been pre-loaded into an astrology app. Your birth details are put into the app, which generates a report based on the pre-loaded descriptions of planets and houses. This means Ruth has not studied your chart in person at this time.

Ruth's interpretations are inspired by the book Esoteric Astrology by Alice Bailey and the Tibetan Master, and by Ruth's teacher, Master Astrologer Alan Oken.

The use of computers has revolutionized astrology since the 1980's yet as we know, computers have both their uses and their limitations. It's easier and faster than ever before to produce a high quality and accurate natal chart using powerful computer software. The speed and accuracy of mathematical calculation is beyond question, and a degree of interpretation is possible using pre-programmed texts.

A computer report is an ideal starting point. For many people a computer report will be their first experience of astrology. It can give you an overall picture of your circumstances and potential, and form a basis for further questions. It is not a substitute for having a professional astrologer interpret your chart in person.

That said, within the natural limitations of a computer, in this report you have a highly accurate chart, calculated using the precise Swiss Ephemeris. This will give you a good overview of your horoscope from a Soul-Centered perspective, which can form a basis for further exploration and self-discovery on your journey of Soul Astrology.

For more personalized insights visit
<https://ruthhadikin.com/consultations.html>

About Ruth Hadikin

Ruth Hadikin BSc. graduated with a first class honors degree (summa cum laude) in midwifery. She has studied spiritual and esoteric subjects for over forty years, integrating learning with wisdom gained from experience.

Ruth is Author of Soul Astrology: How Your Rising Sign Reveals Your Life Path and Soul Purpose, and The Complete Foundations of Soul Astrology. She specializes in supporting you on your own greatest adventure: using Soul Astrology to explore your Soul Path and Life Purpose.

PART ONE:
INTRODUCTION TO SOUL ASTROLOGY
AND YOUR PERSONAL MANDALA

Introduction

Soul Astrology is the name given to a branch of Western Astrology that has its roots in Esoteric Astrology by Alice Bailey and the teachings of The Tibetan, and also draws upon psychological astrology, transpersonal astrology, and Buddhist psychology to create a model of the Universe and how you fit into it.

How To Use Soul Astrology

To work with Soul Astrology as a tool to support your personal and spiritual development you first need to know three things:

- Your Rising Sign (Ascendant)
- Your Sun Sign
- Your Moon Sign

When you have these three things, you have a powerful tool for personal and spiritual growth, at your fingertips.

Next you need to understand how they relate to each other, and then how they relate to you personally. This is all outlined below.

Your Rising Sign IS Your Soul Sign

Your Rising Sign (Ascendant) is your Soul Sign. It indicates the potential for your highest expression in this lifetime. It is the most important sign in Soul Astrology.

Your Rising Sign indicates your Soul's journey. This is the sign that was 'rising' on the horizon at the time of your birth and marks a very important occasion: the dawning of your whole life!

Your birth horoscope (birth chart or natal chart) is like a snapshot of your own energy field taken at your birth. Although it seems to depict things that are outside of you, like planets and Zodiac signs, as you read this report you will begin to understand how they are really just reflections of who you are (and who you are becoming) as an energetic being. Ultimately you are not separate from the Universe, and therefore you are part of a continuous flow of Universal Energy having an individual expression. We call this individual expression of energy your Soul.

According to Esoteric Astrology your Soul's journey begins in the first Zodiac sign Aries as "a point of light in the mind of God" and travels on a journey through each of the twelve Zodiac signs culminating in the twelfth sign of Pisces. Some astrologers believe you spend up to eight lifetimes in each sign!

You are born at a very precise time: when your Soul Sign is rising¹ on the horizon because it is already a vibrational match for your Soul. The Rising Sign creates a 'window of opportunity', a portal if you like, when your Soul can 'beam in' on a matching wavelength!

From Aries at the beginning through to Pisces at the end, the whole Zodiac can be viewed as developmental stages in human consciousness. What happens when your Soul reaches the end of the Zodiac (the twelfth sign of Pisces) and thus completes a cycle? It begins again at the first sign of Aries, progressing upwards through an endless spiraling, unfolding, blossoming, of human consciousness.

Your Soul is a vehicle for your spiritual energy, and so your Soul Sign indicates your innate core essence. It is the essence of who you really are, and your true nature as a spiritual being. Your highest spiritual potential is hidden from you as long as you are identified with, and driven by, the needs of your personality.

Your spiritual development involves realizing your core spiritual energy and expressing that into the world. This is an unfolding process of personality-Soul integration during which you become a fully Soul-centered individual.

¹ This is why it is called your 'rising' sign or ascendant.

What Energies Are You Working With In This Lifetime?

In Astrology, energy is described in terms of its quality (sometimes referred to as a 'modality' - either Cardinal, Fixed or Mutable) and element, for example: Air, Fire, Earth and Water. Each Zodiac sign has a unique combination of quality and element, and therefore has a unique energetic signature, characteristic and purpose.

Cardinal energy has a creative quality to it. It is the energy of Spring and creation. Cardinal signs usher in new ways of doing things, and carve out new pathways. Going 'where man has never gone before', exploring new frontiers, being at the forefront of evolutionary processes is a quality of cardinal consciousness.

The challenge for cardinal signs is they may experience restlessness if they have to stay with one idea, plan, job or project too long. (Aries, Cancer, Libra, Capricorn)

Fixed energy has a stabilizing quality to it. It is the energy of Summer: a place-holder energy that stabilizes forms for the duration of their lifespan. Fixed signs have the ability to create structures and hold them in place. If water needs to be channeled from A to B we need a structure, a canal, to get it there. This ability to create structure, channels, frameworks etc. is a hallmark of fixed consciousness.

The challenge for fixed signs is change, getting stuck in a rut or fixed way of thinking is a possibility, and stubbornness can be a problem. (Taurus, Leo, Scorpio, Aquarius)

Mutable energy has a dissolving, changing, quality to it. Mutable signs are agents of change. It is the energy of Autumn, as old forms are broken down to release their energy. Flexibility, changeability, movement and adaptability are qualities of mutable consciousness.

The challenge for mutable signs is to create structure and stick at something to completion. (Gemini, Virgo, Sagittarius, Pisces)

The Four Elements

In Western Astrology the four elements are Fire, Earth, Air and Water. In terms of your spiritual growth and development:

- Fire signs are about Mastery of Action (Aries, Leo, Sagittarius)
- Earth signs are about Mastery of the Physical (Taurus, Virgo, Capricorn)
- Air signs are about Mastery of the Mind (Gemini, Libra, Aquarius)
- Water signs are about Mastery of Emotions (Cancer, Scorpio, Pisces)

Within each element there is a sign that relates to each quality of energy, so there is a cardinal, fixed and mutable fire sign and also a cardinal, fixed and mutable earth sign and so forth. So we get three signs in each element, making up a total of twelve signs.

Later in your report, as you see which signs make up your personality, you will begin to see the blend of energies in your own personality make up, and whether any particular elements and/or qualities are dominant. If so, this could indicate major themes that you are working out in this lifetime.

Personality-Soul Integration

The Zodiac is made up of twelve signs arranged in a circle. Each sign therefore has its polar opposite on the other side of the circle. So although we have twelve signs, they are grouped into six pairs of opposites. These are called the six polarities.

The six polarities are:

- Aries-Libra
- Taurus-Scorpio
- Gemini-Sagittarius
- Cancer-Capricorn
- Leo-Aquarius
- Virgo-Pisces

Because of the illusion of separation at personality level, we tend to think of them as separate, but it is important to remember that they are inherently connected.

In Soul Astrology, not only are they connected but they are an important key to unlocking your spiritual journey: your healing journey to wholeness is an unfolding process of personality-Soul integration, and an important key to this process lies in understanding and integrating the energy your opposite signs (Your Sun Sign and it's opposite and your Moon Sign and it's opposite).

A Fully Integrated Individual

A Soul Centered individual is 'fully integrated'. This means you have integrated your personality and Soul, and can access and fully express the highest octave (vibration) of each sign. When you no longer experience 'polarity' (a necessary learning environment), you can express the highest octave of Aries-Libra, Taurus-Scorpio, Gemini-Sagittarius, and so forth.

Your Personality Signs

Like the black and white yin/yang symbol, your personality has two sides. One that is in the light, so you are aware of it, the other is hidden, so you are less aware, if at all. In Soul Astrology these two aspects of your personality are represented mainly by your Sun and Moon Signs.

For the most part, your everyday experience is shaped, received and perceived through the filters of your personality. The simplest definition of "ego-personality" is when your mind is thinking about itself.

It is how you experience yourself and who you believe yourself to be: your tendencies, pre-dispositions, habits, gifts, talents, urges, reactions, beliefs and opinions. It is your overall feeling of "there's a ME in here" (usually swiftly followed up by an ongoing story of what that ME is all about!).

It is the sum of all your learned behavior from this and past lives, plus your self-image and your self-concept. It is both the mask you show to the world and the window through which you see and experience the world. All of this might feel very real to you now, yet it has all been picked up along the way and added to your underlying true nature.

In Soul Astrology this collection of habits and reactions is symbolized by your Sun and Moon signs. They represent your habitual (learned) ways of thinking and acting. The Sun is that aspect of your personality that you are aware of, conscious of; it is in the light. The Moon is that which you are unaware of (at least until you have done some personal growth work). It is in the dark - your shadow personality.

The learned behavior of your Sun and Moon signs is so powerful that you identify with it. You feel as though it is “who you are.” Your spiritual path involves dis-identifying from these personality traits and reactions by changing your behavior patterns and by recognizing that while you might have those tendencies and abilities, you are also so much more than that.

Your Sun Sign

This is one half of your personality: the part that you are aware of because it is in the light. It is your ‘modus operandi’ (M.O.), in other words, it is the way you operate on a daily basis. It is your main way of perceiving the world, relating to it and navigating your way through it. It is how you make sense of, and interact with, your world.

Your Moon Sign

This is the other half of your personality. It is your shadow, or the side of your personality that is most difficult for you to see because it is mainly in the dark. Until you do some deeper personal and spiritual development work, this will be your blind spot. However this doesn’t mean it is less important than your Sun Sign, in many ways it is even more important. It can be an important key in your healing journey.

Your Moon sign indicates your innate emotional state and who you become in relating with others. The Moon reflects your past, your karma. The accumulation of good and bad traits in your personality, or consciousness, inherited over many incarnations. It equates with the shadow side of your personality, your sub-conscious: in other words the side of your nature that you would rather not look at, and are largely unaware of.

In contrast to your Sun-sign, which is still an accumulation of character traits acquired over many lifetimes, but they are in the 'sun' – in the light, and so you are very much more aware of them, it is when others push our buttons that you get to see your Moon-nature: this 'hidden' aspect of yourself. It is revealed to you in your reactions to others. You then have the opportunity to heal, or purify, these negative patterns from your consciousness.

In this sense it is really true that the most difficult people are your wisest teachers. They will push your buttons and illuminate your shadow, so that you can see which aspects of yourself you need to work on, if you are to become fully integrated, healed and whole (holy) as a congruent and integrated personality/ Soul.

Personality Types

One of the most basic ways to understand your personality is to look at the element of your Sun and Moon signs. For example, by default:

- Air signs (Gemini, Libra, Aquarius), think their way through life;
- Water signs (Cancer, Scorpio, Pisces) feel their way forward;
- Fire signs (Aries, Leo, Sagittarius) focus on energy and action and
- Earth signs (Taurus, Virgo, Capricorn) want all the practicalities organized with physical resources and infrastructures in place.

It's not that you don't cross over into other areas, we all do, but in times of stress and challenge you rely on and trust your default way of operating (M.O.) more than the others. It's like the 'operating system' that you have been programmed with.

You can already begin to see the combinations of personality types that are possible just based on your Sun and Moon sign elements alone. For example if your Sun is Gemini (air) and Moon is Cancer (water), your M.O. will be thinking/feeling. You will basically be a thinking/feeling type.

The combinations are many depending upon the various Sun/Moon signs, such as thinking/thinking; thinking/feeling; thinking/action; thinking/practical; feeling/thinking; feeling/feeling, feeling/action, practical/action and so forth. You get the idea.

Personal, Social and Generational

So what of the other planets? In astrology planets are categorized into three groups: personal, social, and generational.

The planets that are thought to have a more personal influence are the Sun, Moon, Mercury, Venus and Mars. Jupiter and Saturn are thought to be more social in their effects, while the slower moving planets, Uranus, Neptune and Pluto are thought to be more generational in nature because they stay in the same sign for many years (so whole generations are born with the planet in the same sign).

In Soul Astrology the planets make up our personal and collective 'karma'. The Sun and Moon are the most tangible and we may be able to experience their effects most directly, but all the planets will have a direct influence on how we experience and express our Soul-light as our Life Purpose.

The outer planets (Uranus, Neptune and Pluto) may be generational in nature but they are also considered highly potent and transformational from a Soul-Centered perspective. If we have the consciousness to receive it, their energy can be particularly potent in catapulting our conscious awareness and accelerating our individual journey of personality-Soul integration. In Soul Astrology they are known as 'planets of transformation'.

The Evolution of Human Consciousness

In Esoteric Astrology, The Tibetan taught that as a collective, humanity is evolving from instinct to intellect, from intellect to intuition; and from intuition to illumination.

This not only describes the evolution of human consciousness, but it also describes our individual path of spiritual awakening because as we awaken individually, we will each experience these unfolding 'stages' of consciousness. Indeed it is the awakening of individuals that is the spark that ignites the overall, driving the collective evolution of consciousness.

As we look at each of these stages in turn, and their planetary associations, remember that when you are talking about the evolution of human consciousness AND your individual path of spiritual awakening at the same time, for they are one and the same. The planets that support each stage: emptiness.

So our complete path is as follows:

Instinct > Intellect > Intuition > Illumination > Emptiness

In terms of the evolution of human consciousness, and your individual path of spiritual awakening, the planets act as 'supporters' or 'assistants' to you that support specific developmental stages:

Instinct: Sun, Moon, Mercury, Venus, Mars.

Intellect: Saturn, Uranus.

Intuition: Jupiter.

Illumination: Neptune.

Emptiness: Pluto.

These stages are not rigid, but serve as a general guide. You will often experience overlap, for example when you experience moments of Neptune you will be having experiences that can ultimately lead to greater illumination. You could also be experiencing a powerful moment of Mars

The First Two Grand Theorems

In your short story, you are showing others how to handle feelings and feelings in a healthy way.

1. Yes
2. No
3. Yes
4. No
5. Yes

The Third Grand Theorem

In your short story, you are showing others there are opportunities for you to take your own interests and skills to a new level of personal progress.

1. Yes
2. No
3. Yes
4. No
5. Yes
6. No

The Fourth Grand Theorem

In your short story, you are showing others how to move beyond the boundaries of the world through the ability to create a new world of opportunities and opportunities from the past when you are able to create a new world of opportunities and opportunities, which gives you a new way, which is not only a new way, but a new way to create a new world.

From the spiritual perspective, we can see the world as a collection of opportunities and opportunities that we can use to create a new world of opportunities and opportunities.

Check yourself: only if you have a strong belief, then you can see the world as a collection of opportunities and opportunities, which gives you a new way, which is not only a new way, but a new way to create a new world.

<https://www.khanacademy.com>

therefore a formation of energy that holds a unique field of consciousness. Planets are embodied consciousness holding a specific vibration, frequency, or field of awareness.

The Sun creates the conditions for life on Earth by providing the energy and the consciousness of the Sun to the Earth. The Sun is the source of the energy and the consciousness for life on Earth. It is the source of the energy and the consciousness that allows life to exist on Earth.

The Moon creates the conditions for life on Earth by providing the energy and the consciousness of the Moon to the Earth. The Moon is the source of the energy and the consciousness for life on Earth. It is the source of the energy and the consciousness that allows life to exist on Earth.

Mercury creates the conditions for life on Earth by providing the energy and the consciousness of Mercury to the Earth. Mercury is the source of the energy and the consciousness for life on Earth. It is the source of the energy and the consciousness that allows life to exist on Earth.

Venus creates the conditions for life on Earth by providing the energy and the consciousness of Venus to the Earth. Venus is the source of the energy and the consciousness for life on Earth. It is the source of the energy and the consciousness that allows life to exist on Earth.

Earth creates the conditions for life on Earth by providing the energy and the consciousness of Earth to the Earth. Earth is the source of the energy and the consciousness for life on Earth. It is the source of the energy and the consciousness that allows life to exist on Earth.

Jupiter creates the conditions for life on Earth by providing the energy and the consciousness of Jupiter to the Earth. Jupiter is the source of the energy and the consciousness for life on Earth. It is the source of the energy and the consciousness that allows life to exist on Earth.

knowledge. Through the conditioning influence of light we are able to reach out to our fellow human brethren and sisters and connect with them, not as otherworldly, but as our larger human family.

Light creates the conditions for us to build structures and systems capable of an immense span of large group interactions, connections, and cooperation. It is through the conditioning influence of light that we are able to reach out to our fellow human brethren and sisters and connect with them, not as otherworldly, but as our larger human family.

Through light we are able to reach out to our fellow human brethren and sisters and connect with them, not as otherworldly, but as our larger human family. It is through the conditioning influence of light that we are able to reach out to our fellow human brethren and sisters and connect with them, not as otherworldly, but as our larger human family.

Light creates the conditions for us to build structures and systems capable of an immense span of large group interactions, connections, and cooperation. It is through the conditioning influence of light that we are able to reach out to our fellow human brethren and sisters and connect with them, not as otherworldly, but as our larger human family.

Light creates the conditions for us to build structures and systems capable of an immense span of large group interactions, connections, and cooperation. It is through the conditioning influence of light that we are able to reach out to our fellow human brethren and sisters and connect with them, not as otherworldly, but as our larger human family.

Light creates the conditions for us to build structures and systems capable of an immense span of large group interactions, connections, and cooperation. It is through the conditioning influence of light that we are able to reach out to our fellow human brethren and sisters and connect with them, not as otherworldly, but as our larger human family.

Light creates the conditions for us to build structures and systems capable of an immense span of large group interactions, connections, and cooperation. It is through the conditioning influence of light that we are able to reach out to our fellow human brethren and sisters and connect with them, not as otherworldly, but as our larger human family.

Light creates the conditions for us to build structures and systems capable of an immense span of large group interactions, connections, and cooperation. It is through the conditioning influence of light that we are able to reach out to our fellow human brethren and sisters and connect with them, not as otherworldly, but as our larger human family.

Light creates the conditions for us to build structures and systems capable of an immense span of large group interactions, connections, and cooperation. It is through the conditioning influence of light that we are able to reach out to our fellow human brethren and sisters and connect with them, not as otherworldly, but as our larger human family.

How Personality & Social Skills

The first step is to identify the key areas of your personality and social skills that you want to improve. This could be anything from communication skills to emotional intelligence. Once you have identified the areas you want to focus on, you can then start to work on them. This could be done through a variety of methods, such as reading books, attending workshops, or practicing skills in real life situations.

The second step is to set goals for yourself. This should be done in a way that is realistic and achievable. For example, if you want to improve your communication skills, you could set a goal to speak up more in meetings or to listen more actively to others. Once you have set your goals, you can then start to work on them.

The third step is to practice your skills. This should be done in a way that is consistent and regular. For example, if you want to improve your communication skills, you could practice speaking up in meetings every day. Once you have started practicing your skills, you can then start to see the benefits of your efforts.

The fourth step is to evaluate your progress. This should be done in a way that is honest and objective. For example, you could ask a friend or colleague for feedback on your communication skills. Once you have evaluated your progress, you can then start to make adjustments to your goals and practice routine.

How to Use Your Personality & Social Skills

The following are the rules of your personality & social skills. These are the rules that you should follow to use your personality and social skills in a way that is effective and successful. These rules are:

Remember to look at your graph sheet. Find the values of α on the left hand side of the sheet. Then to find α you will use the graph for your test type. Use the top of the bottom to identify which type the graph represents.

The number of data points is equal to the number of test types. For example, if you have 10 data points, you will have 10 test types. The number of data points is equal to the number of test types. The number of data points is equal to the number of test types.

Test Type	Number of Data Points	Number of Test Types
1	1	1
2	2	2
3	3	3
4	4	4
5	5	5
6	6	6
7	7	7
8	8	8
9	9	9
10	10	10

The number of data points is equal to the number of test types. For example, if you have 10 data points, you will have 10 test types. The number of data points is equal to the number of test types. The number of data points is equal to the number of test types.

The number of data points is equal to the number of test types. For example, if you have 10 data points, you will have 10 test types. The number of data points is equal to the number of test types. The number of data points is equal to the number of test types.

How Our Age & Life Progress

The passage is talking about the fact that people are getting older and that they are not as young as they used to be. It is talking about the changes that happen to our bodies as we get older. It is talking about the things that we can do to stay healthy and happy as we get older.

It is talking about the things that we can do to stay healthy and happy as we get older. It is talking about the things that we can do to stay healthy and happy as we get older. It is talking about the things that we can do to stay healthy and happy as we get older.

It is talking about the things that we can do to stay healthy and happy as we get older. It is talking about the things that we can do to stay healthy and happy as we get older. It is talking about the things that we can do to stay healthy and happy as we get older.

It is talking about the things that we can do to stay healthy and happy as we get older. It is talking about the things that we can do to stay healthy and happy as we get older. It is talking about the things that we can do to stay healthy and happy as we get older.

It is talking about the things that we can do to stay healthy and happy as we get older. It is talking about the things that we can do to stay healthy and happy as we get older. It is talking about the things that we can do to stay healthy and happy as we get older.

It is talking about the things that we can do to stay healthy and happy as we get older. It is talking about the things that we can do to stay healthy and happy as we get older. It is talking about the things that we can do to stay healthy and happy as we get older.

Once you have a deeper understanding of the meanings of your personality signs, and have remembered how they best express themselves in your life, you are then able to take control of them. In accord with the nature of your personality signs, you can be successful in your life and relationships. You can also be successful in your work and in your relationships with others. You can be successful in your relationships with others. You can be successful in your relationships with others.

The personality signs are a complex, interlocking system. The signs are not just a collection of words, but a system of symbols that can be used to describe your life. The signs are not just a collection of words, but a system of symbols that can be used to describe your life. The signs are not just a collection of words, but a system of symbols that can be used to describe your life.

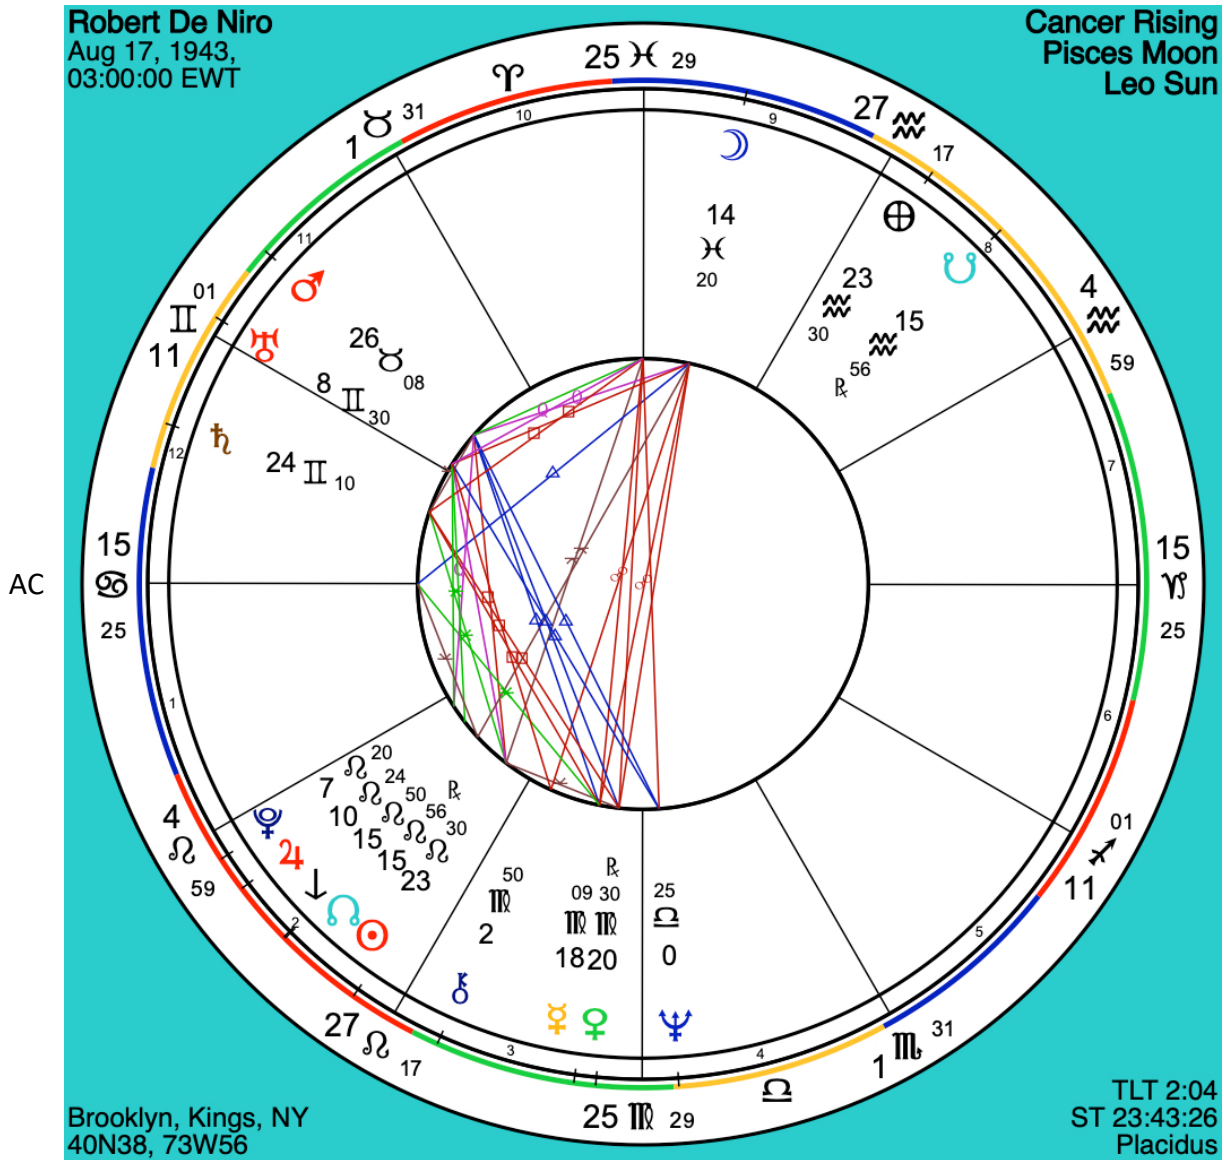

The personality signs are a complex, interlocking system. The signs are not just a collection of words, but a system of symbols that can be used to describe your life. The signs are not just a collection of words, but a system of symbols that can be used to describe your life. The signs are not just a collection of words, but a system of symbols that can be used to describe your life.

The personality signs are a complex, interlocking system. The signs are not just a collection of words, but a system of symbols that can be used to describe your life. The signs are not just a collection of words, but a system of symbols that can be used to describe your life. The signs are not just a collection of words, but a system of symbols that can be used to describe your life.

SAMPLE

Your Natal Chart

Your Soul Sign (Rising Sign / Ascendant) is on the left (AC). The small numbers 1-12 inside each segment anti-clockwise from the AC are the house numbers. The colored lines in the center of the wheel indicate 'aspects' (see key below):

♈ Aries ♉ Taurus ♊ Gemini ♋ Cancer ♌ Leo ♍ Virgo ♎ Libra ♏ Scorpio ♐ Sagittarius ♑ Capricorn ♒ Aquarius ♓ Pisces	♈ Taurus ♉ Cancer ♊ Virgo ♋ Scorpio ♌ Capricorn ♍ Pisces	Key to the Houses: <table border="0" style="width: 100%;"> <tr> <td style="width: 50%;">1. Self</td> <td style="width: 50%;">7. Partnerships/ marriage</td> </tr> <tr> <td>2. Personal resources</td> <td>8. Death / regeneration</td> </tr> <tr> <td>3. Learning / communication</td> <td>9. Higher wisdom</td> </tr> <tr> <td>4. Home</td> <td>10. Worldly position/ career</td> </tr> <tr> <td>5. Children / creativity</td> <td>11. Friends / social groups</td> </tr> <tr> <td>6. Service / health</td> <td>12. Inner experience/ retreat</td> </tr> </table>	1. Self	7. Partnerships/ marriage	2. Personal resources	8. Death / regeneration	3. Learning / communication	9. Higher wisdom	4. Home	10. Worldly position/ career	5. Children / creativity	11. Friends / social groups	6. Service / health	12. Inner experience/ retreat	<table border="0" style="width: 100%;"> <tr> <td style="width: 50%;">Sun</td> <td style="width: 50%;">♅ Uranus</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Moon</td> <td>☾ Neptune</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Mercury</td> <td>♁ Pluto</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Venus</td> <td>♃ Chiron</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Mars</td> <td>♂ N Node</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Jupiter</td> <td>♃ Earth</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Saturn</td> <td>♁ Vulcan</td> </tr> <tr> <td></td> <td>♃ ↓</td> </tr> </table> Aspects <table border="0" style="width: 100%;"> <tr> <td style="width: 50%;">✳ Sextiles</td> <td style="width: 50%;">▲ Trines</td> </tr> <tr> <td>□ Squares</td> <td>♁ Oppositions</td> </tr> </table>	Sun	♅ Uranus	Moon	☾ Neptune	Mercury	♁ Pluto	Venus	♃ Chiron	Mars	♂ N Node	Jupiter	♃ Earth	Saturn	♁ Vulcan		♃ ↓	✳ Sextiles	▲ Trines	□ Squares	♁ Oppositions
1. Self	7. Partnerships/ marriage
2. Personal resources	8. Death / regeneration
3. Learning / communication	9. Higher wisdom
4. Home	10. Worldly position/ career
5. Children / creativity	11. Friends / social groups
6. Service / health	12. Inner experience/ retreat
Sun	♅ Uranus
Moon	☾ Neptune
Mercury	♁ Pluto
Venus	♃ Chiron
Mars	♂ N Node
Jupiter	♃ Earth
Saturn	♁ Vulcan
	♃ ↓
✳ Sextiles	▲ Trines
□ Squares	♁ Oppositions

Chart generated using Time Passages astrology software. Report created with Time Cycles software with introduction and interpretation by Ruth Hadikin. This edition ©Ruth Hadikin 2022
<https://RuthHadikin.com>

PART TWO: THE PLANETARY SPACEHOLDERS

What, How, and Where.

In astrology, PLANETS tell you 'what' energy you are embodying, SIGNS tells you 'how' the energy is expressing itself in your life, HOUSES tell you 'where' in your life the dynamics are being played out, while ASPECTS will tell you more about the relationship between energies, and whether they play well together - or not!

For example, take a Moon in Leo in the 2nd house: the Moon is WHAT, Leo is HOW and the 2nd house is WHERE. Leo is the sign of creativity and the 2nd house is the area of your inner resources and finances, so with a Leo Moon in the 2nd house you could gain emotional security and satisfaction (Moon) by creatively (Leo) drawing upon your own inner resources (2nd= house) to generate income (2nd house).

Your Soul's journey is indicated by your Rising Sign (Soul Sign), so what role do the planets play? Well, they are indicating the embodied patterns that you carry in your energy field from this and past lifetimes. In other words they reflect what Western Psychology would refer to as your 'personality'. This is especially the case with the Sun and Moon, since they are the most personal planets, but also Mercury, Venus, and Mars will also play a significant part in shaping your personality. Whatever signs your personal planets are in, are your personality signs.

The light of your Soul, indicated by your Rising Sign, is focused through the lens of your personality. So you could say that your Soul Sign indicates WHAT you came here to do, while and your Sun and Moon signs show HOW you will do it.

In this section you will read about the significance of your own planets and their placement by Zodiac Sign, then later in part three you will read about the significance of their House positions and Aspects.

First we explore your personal planets (The Sun, Moon, Mercury, Venus and Mars). These reflect your individual karmic conditioning - especially the Sun and The Moon.

Next we explore your social planets: (Jupiter and Saturn). These reflect your social and familial karmic conditioning.

Finally we explore how the planets of transformation relate to you (Uranus, Neptune and Pluto). These reflect your role in the collective karma of the society you were born into, and the world we live in.

In Soul Astrology we're always thinking on two levels:

- what might be happening at the level of your Soul-light, and
- how this is being filtered down into your physical experience through the 'lens' of your personality

So for each planet and sign you will see a description of both the Soul-Centered meaning AND the personality (ego-centered) meaning. Whichever of those you experience, will depend upon your own level of consciousness, and your capacity to be self-aware and fully present in each moment.

The Planetary Role in The Evolution of Consciousness

In Esoteric Astrology, The Tibetan Master DK taught that the consciousness of humanity is evolving from instinct to intellect, from intellect to intuition; and from intuition to illumination. I would also like to propose one final stage: emptiness, so our complete evolutionary path would be something like this:

instinct > intellect > intuition > illumination > emptiness

As 'spaceholders' for your journey of awakening the planets are creating conditions for you that support these stages:

Instinct: Sun, Moon, Mercury, Venus, Mars (personal planets)

Intellect: Jupiter, Saturn (social planets)

Intuition: Uranus

Illumination: Neptune

Emptiness: Pluto

You can read more about the role of the planets in the evolution of consciousness in my books, Soul Astrology: How Your Rising Sign Reveals Your Soul Path and Life Purpose, and The Complete Foundations of Soul Astrology. Both available through RuthHadikin.com

SUN

It isn't possible to overestimate the importance of the Sun. We live in a Solar System, and it is the Sun's life-giving force that provides life-force energy (chi/ prana) for all things within that system, including us. At the Soul level the Sun is the major 'spaceholder' for life to exist. The Sun is prana: the very life force that animates and breathes 'life' into physical forms. As a living being, the Sun itself has it's own consciousness. The activities of the Sun not only sustain life on earth, but the entire planetary system to which we belong. The heart of the Sun creates and sustains the conditions for the development of our heart and Soul, and the consciousness of the Sun permeates our own consciousness, through the action and activities of prana.

No accident then that when many people talk about their horoscopes, often all they really know is their Sun sign and, given they know little else about their horoscope, they can recognize themselves based on this one factor alone. The Sun is that important in influencing our sense of self and identity.

In astrology the Sun and Moon are known as the two 'luminaries' because they are (or appear to be) 'luminous', in other words they give light. So already we can see that the Sun brings us light, and life. The Sun therefore has the potential to bring the light of awareness to whatever area of the natal chart it is placed.

The Sun as Identity or Ego

The Sun can also represent our ego, or that which we identify

- What do I find myself doing most of the time?

The activities that come up as answers to these questions relate to the way that you spend a lot of the time during the day, and will be influenced by the demands and conditions of the job or your work life.

There is a common theme to the activities that you do in your work life, and these activities are related through the activities that you do in your work life, and these activities are related through the activities that you do in your work life, and these activities are related through the activities that you do in your work life.

An activity is a task that you do in your work life, and these activities are related through the activities that you do in your work life, and these activities are related through the activities that you do in your work life.

There is a common theme to the activities that you do in your work life, and these activities are related through the activities that you do in your work life, and these activities are related through the activities that you do in your work life.

There is a common theme to the activities that you do in your work life, and these activities are related through the activities that you do in your work life, and these activities are related through the activities that you do in your work life.

There is a common theme to the activities that you do in your work life, and these activities are related through the activities that you do in your work life, and these activities are related through the activities that you do in your work life.

...and a

... ..

... ..

... ..

... ..

... ..

SAMPLE

The first paragraph of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records for all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry should be supported by a valid receipt or invoice to ensure transparency and accountability. This practice is essential for both internal audits and external reporting.

The second paragraph outlines the specific procedures for recording transactions. It states that all entries must be made in a timely manner and should be clearly categorized according to the accounting system. Regular reviews of the records are also required to identify any discrepancies or errors.

The third paragraph details the responsibilities of the accounting staff. It notes that they must adhere to the highest standards of integrity and confidentiality. Any suspected irregularities should be reported immediately to the appropriate authorities. The document also mentions the need for ongoing training and updates on relevant regulations.

The fourth paragraph discusses the role of technology in modern accounting. It highlights the benefits of using specialized software to streamline data entry and analysis. However, it also cautions against over-reliance on technology, stressing the importance of manual verification and oversight. The document provides guidelines for selecting and implementing such systems.

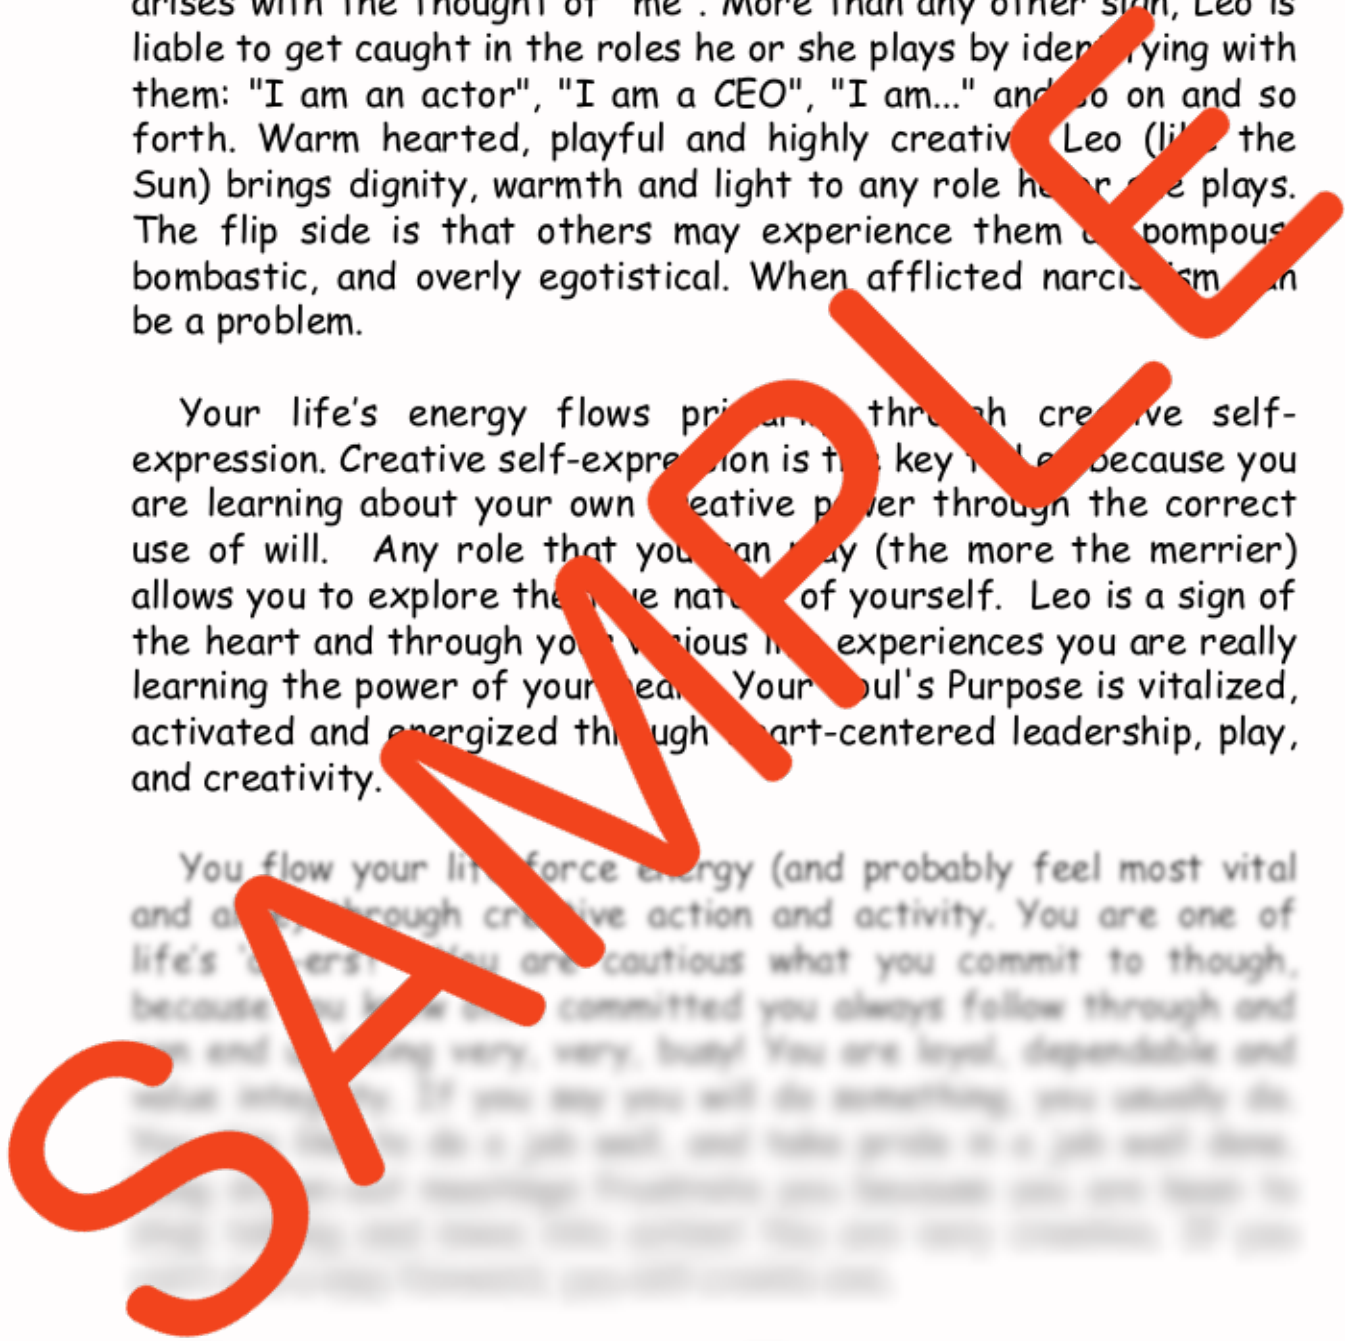

The final paragraph concludes the document by reiterating the commitment to excellence in financial reporting. It encourages all stakeholders to work together to maintain the highest level of accuracy and reliability in all accounting activities.

The Sun is in dignity in it's own sign of Leo which means it's energy is expressed most freely and uninhibited. The individual's attention and energy is focused on the development of a healthy sense of self (ego) through constant and consistent self-expression and the creative use of personal will. There is usually a need to keep friends and family close to continuously reflect one's self-image back to oneself. As a result it is not surprising then, that the sign of Leo is the one most associated with ego. Ego arises with the thought of "me". More than any other sign, Leo is liable to get caught in the roles he or she plays by identifying with them: "I am an actor", "I am a CEO", "I am..." and so on and so forth. Warm hearted, playful and highly creative Leo (like the Sun) brings dignity, warmth and light to any role he or she plays. The flip side is that others may experience them as pompous, bombastic, and overly egotistical. When afflicted narcissism can be a problem.

Your life's energy flows primarily through creative self-expression. Creative self-expression is the key to Leo because you are learning about your own creative power through the correct use of will. Any role that you can play (the more the merrier) allows you to explore the true nature of yourself. Leo is a sign of the heart and through your various life experiences you are really learning the power of your heart. Your Soul's Purpose is vitalized, activated and energized through heart-centered leadership, play, and creativity.

You flow your life force energy (and probably feel most vital and alive) through creative action and activity. You are one of life's leaders. You are cautious what you commit to though, because once you have committed you always follow through and don't let anything very, very, bust! You are loyal, dependable and take things very seriously. If you say you will do something, you usually do. You will do a job well, and take pride in a job well done. You are a natural leader and you will lead others. If you are a leader, you will lead others. If you are a leader, you will lead others.

You are a natural leader and you will lead others. If you are a leader, you will lead others. If you are a leader, you will lead others.

you want reliable ways to make sure things get done. This often means creating or being in a role, to ensure someone is responsible for getting the job done or the project completed. This is why you are the most creative of signs. You know exactly what needs to happen, and how to make things happen. It's all about the planning and the control and the ability to get things done. You are the most reliable way to make sure things get done.

The Moon in your chart shows your emotional world and instincts. It shows how you react and respond to others, and who you become in relationship. It shows what you need in order to feel emotionally safe and secure in your life. The Moon is the most important planet in your chart, and it is the most powerful. It is the most powerful planet in your chart, and it is the most powerful. It is the most powerful planet in your chart, and it is the most powerful.

The Moon in your chart shows your emotional world and instincts. It shows how you react and respond to others, and who you become in relationship. It shows what you need in order to feel emotionally safe and secure in your life. The Moon is the most important planet in your chart, and it is the most powerful.

The Moon in your chart shows your emotional world and instincts. It shows how you react and respond to others, and who you become in relationship. It shows what you need in order to feel emotionally safe and secure in your life. The Moon is the most important planet in your chart, and it is the most powerful. It is the most powerful planet in your chart, and it is the most powerful.

SAMPLE

MOON

At the level of the personality the Moon in your chart shows your emotional world and instincts. It shows how you react and respond to others, and who you become in relationship. It shows what you need in order to feel emotionally safe and secure in your world.

Whenever the film is completed, it is in the light, and then you shoot and re-shoot and shoot to perfection. This is a terrible and expensive process. When you are in the grip of something big, it is not possible to remember everything you do and do.

The camera, when you are shooting, is like a person. It is alive. It is not just a machine. It is a person. It is a person that you are working with. It is a person that you are working with. It is a person that you are working with.

When you are shooting, you are not just a person. You are a person. You are a person. You are a person. You are a person.

When you are shooting, you are not just a person. You are a person. You are a person. You are a person. You are a person.

When you are shooting, you are not just a person. You are a person. You are a person. You are a person. You are a person.

When you are shooting, you are not just a person. You are a person. You are a person. You are a person. You are a person.

When you are shooting, you are not just a person. You are a person. You are a person. You are a person. You are a person.

SAMPLE

The first paragraph discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and the role of the accounting system in providing reliable financial information to management and external stakeholders.

The second paragraph highlights the need for a strong internal control system to prevent and detect errors and fraud, ensuring the integrity of the financial reporting process.

The third paragraph emphasizes the importance of transparency and ethical behavior in financial reporting, as well as the role of the auditor in providing an independent opinion on the financial statements.

The fourth paragraph discusses the impact of accounting on business decision-making, as well as the role of the accounting system in providing timely and relevant information to management for strategic planning and performance evaluation.

The fifth paragraph highlights the importance of the accounting system in providing a clear and concise picture of the company's financial performance, as well as the role of the accounting system in identifying areas for improvement and cost reduction.

The sixth paragraph discusses the role of the accounting system in providing a clear and concise picture of the company's financial performance, as well as the role of the accounting system in identifying areas for improvement and cost reduction.

The seventh paragraph highlights the importance of the accounting system in providing a clear and concise picture of the company's financial performance, as well as the role of the accounting system in identifying areas for improvement and cost reduction.

ourselves (or not) will be indicated in our horoscope by the placement and condition of the Moon by sign, house and aspect.

If you are to develop compassion for yourself, for your own inner child, for the one that hurts, for your own vulnerability, for the terrified animal instinct that you have inside, you need to access and cultivate the higher qualities of The Moon in yourself.

On a personality level the Moon rules Cancer: associated with Mothering, birth, breastfeeding and nourishment. On a Soul level the Moon is the Soul Ruler of Virgo: the Divine Mother and sacred feminine. Just as necessity is the mother of invention, then the circumstances of your own Moon Sign, your particular Moon challenges, and the path to your own inner child healing, becomes the Mother of Compassion in your own life. As you heal your Moon Sign challenges, you become more empathic and compassionate, towards yourself and others.

If you ignore the call of the Moon you are ignoring your own inner child's cries for healing. By fully embracing and acknowledging the needs of your Moon sign, you set course on your own path to integration and healing. You shift from worldly mother to Sacred Mother, and the Divine Feminine. You embody compassion and, just like Mother Mary, Quan Yin, and Avelokiteshvara, you may become a manifestation of the bodhisattva of compassion.

At the Soul level the Moon creates the conditions for you to transform negative emotions into compassion, and then teaches you how to flow that compassion into the world as a form of spiritual nourishment for yourself and others.

The sign that your Moon is in indicates your emotional constitution, including your mothering style. You can also be surprised to learn what the Moon sign of childhood indicates that may be needed for healing.

The house placement of your Moon shows the area of your life where you are likely to have your most intense and deepest emotional healing and recovery.

MOON in PISCES

☾ in ♋

With your Moon in Pisces, you may respond to others with sensitivity and imagination. When you feel hurt you may tend to withdraw from the world completely, and may feel a deep sense of hurt and sadness. Your key to healing is through recognizing and cultivating the power of your own heart's radiant energy to transform suffering in both yourself, and others.

Having Moon in Pisces isn't easy. Because you can feel what others are feeling it can be painful for you. The sad experience of suffering as if it were happening directly to you. It may be difficult for you to live with the aspect of your personality because you may feel too vulnerable. The sign of Pisces is to feel the emotions of other people's feelings, which can lead to a sense of compassion or a need. The intuitive knowledge of what Moon is sensitive to is difficult sometimes you may feel yourself strongly the subject or setting may be used during the day, in terms of emotional content, drug taking, stress, depression and a lot of things. Because you might feel this way, the other is the sense of responsibility and feeling that is the real world.

The only way to be able to feel what others feel is to be able to feel what you are feeling and what you are feeling. The knowledge of how to feel you are able to feel what you are feeling and to feel what you are feeling and understand what you are feeling. The thing you understand and understand you. This thing is the Moon. Feeling that if you could just see what things other people, that is change the world.

Remember, it is through that the Moon influences you and others and that you are feeling what you are feeling and that you are feeling it is that the world around you. That the Moon, that is reflected in the atmosphere and condition of the Moon is just that. It is also important that you feel the truth of the Moon and you feel with great compassion for yourself, because there may still be emotional pain from the past that seems connected with your Moon sign.

think like climbing your own 'stairway to heaven' . This is how Mercury enables you to build your own 'Rainbow Bridge' to higher mind.

If Mercury is afflicted you may be challenged to shift your perspective and find that you have climbing goals, where it is more difficult to shift your consciousness, but it is important to remember that you are never prevented to change. Even if you have a hard period with Mercury in your sign that will bring you great insights for thinking and concepts that you can then use to support your path to enlightenment.

Mercury's greatest gift is the power to change your mind. There are many that believe you can adjust how to maintain and to use that we must adjust to the a greater thing, within the light, we can see. It is Mercury that gives you the power to change and find that perfect word, gift, if your thinking is the right. Mercury brings you the power to be more flexible if you are too inflexible. Mercury brings you the power to change where you find an intention to change your focus. In this way, it is Mercury that brings you the power to brighten your own path to spiritual awakening.

In short, the essence of Mercury then, is movement of mind in it's most tangible form that is thinking, learning, communication. Movement of mind, in the form of all kinds of thoughts and ideas.

The sign Mercury occupies in your horoscope will therefore tell you much about the type of movement: is it slow and steady, is it graceful and flowing, is it fast and erratic, darting here and there?

The house position occupied by Mercury, tells you which life area stimulates (and is stimulated by) your entire thought processes, which include thinking, learning, and communicating (language, writing and speaking).

MERCURY in VIRGO - Dignity

♿ in ♍

Your mind is orderly, meticulous, precise, analytical and detail-not usually someone who will throw caution to the wind and fall headlong into a whirlwind romantic liaison as well as 'fall in love' with those who have her energy is somewhat repressed and needs to feel free. There is a high level of energy in the air, it is electric, it is emotional, it is passionate, it is powerful. The energy is not just in the mind, it is in the body, it is in the soul, it is in the heart. The energy is not just in the mind, it is in the body, it is in the soul, it is in the heart. The energy is not just in the mind, it is in the body, it is in the soul, it is in the heart.

On a first level there is the potential to experience self-awareness, and explore the true nature of self as love, through sensory awareness. If the senses can be developed, through grounding practices such as yoga, Venus in Virgo can bring a deep, experiential, understanding of the practical, tangible, reality of love as a living awareness in your body, rather than a romantic fancy.

MARS

Mars is the power of propulsion. Mars takes your vitality, the life-force energy given by The Sun, and pulses it into your life activities. Mars is the energy of assertion.

As the God of War it is Mars' job to protect by 'repelling' enemies, potential invaders and other such harmful entities that would be a threat to the continued survival of the species. As such Mars also rules the immune system in the body.

Whereas the energy of Venus is magnetic, Mars' energy is electric. As Venus pulls in, Mars pushes out. Where Venus inductively pulls towards her that which she desires, Mars organizes a war party and goes out and takes it by force if necessary. With the hot will of a conqueror, Venus would be the attacking side, Mars would be the repelling side.

Whereas Venus is passive and receptive, it is the strong force that pulls the love energy into the physical world. It is the energy of creation, conception and sex. The other aspect is active and assertive, strong and energetic. The strong force of Mars motivates us into action. This universal force is present throughout history.

harnessing Your Energy

It is also important to take into account other factors in your chart that influence how you use your energy. For that, the placement of planets will tell you much about your motivation in life. You can learn the use of astrology, and use your insight and intuition to get the most out of your life.

The Sun is your main life force, your vitality, or the source of life force energy. It is the source of all your energy. In your life, you may have a great deal of energy, but if you have a weak Sun, you may not be able to use that energy to drive you to your goals. In order to drive home your goals.

In considering Mars, you might think of your Sun more in terms of your overall vitality, and Mars as your personal will, willpower, or drive, to get things done.

Mars in the Elements

Unless mitigated by other chart factors Mars in a fire sign will usually have an abundance of energy, stamina and endurance. These are the "Duracell Bunnies" of the zodiac due to their seemingly boundless energy and ability to just keep on going!

Mars in earth and water is slowed down. There is more of a steady flow of energy, or it may even trickle and dry up so there is an apparent lack of energy.

Mars in an air sign can activate and agitate mental activity. This can bring an erratic quality, excessive mental activity, and potentially nervous exhaustion. It is important to focus and ground this mental activity to avoid burnout.

Martian energy emanates outwardly to protect, defend, or acquire that which he owns, needs, or desires. The condition of Mars in your personal horoscope, by sign and house, describes your will, drive, and inner life energy and personal power.

The sign in which Mars is placed describes other than that of 'your warrior' you are. The sign will indicate how you express your personal drive or will, how energetic you are or are not, how you respond or assert your will or will your capacity to protect and defend yourself and your own, the nature of your personal 'warrior' and the nature of your sexual drive.

The house placement indicates where in your life this energy is directed.

MARS in TAURUS - detriment

♂ in ♉

With Mars in Taurus you usually assert your energy with patience and determination towards tangible material outcomes. Mars is said to be in detriment in Taurus, meaning his energy is weakened and his power is minimized. Therefore you may also experience inertia or a lack of drive to assert yourself toward your goals. You like to see tangible results and a good 'return on your investment' for 'spending' your energy. You can therefore be motivated into action by some kind of material or financial reward. When you do move into action you can be very patient and persistent in your approach. If Mars is afflicted you may be prone to excessive pessimism, procrastination and even depression. Your sexual nature is likely to be very muted.

When Mars is in the sign of Taurus, you are likely to be very patient and persistent in your approach. If Mars is afflicted you may be prone to excessive pessimism, procrastination and even depression. Your sexual nature is likely to be very muted.

JUPITER

According to Esoteric Astrology Jupiter is a sacred planet

because Jupiter creates the conditions for the expansion of learning and wisdom. When we think of wisdom we think of the fine-tuning of the intellect and, as we continue our evolutionary journey from instinct to intellect Jupiter does indeed create the conditions for our first expansion of intellect beyond our instinctive nature. However, esoterically Jupiter is also associated with Ray Tan - the path of Love-Wisdom, and the higher wisdom of Jupiter has the potential to propel us way beyond intellect into higher states of awareness. (read more about the Seven Rays in my book "The Complete Foundations of East Astrology" Available at www.astrology.com)

Jupiter is the energy of growth and expansion. We can see that when we have unobstructed expansion in relationships with a mate and family, the next part of our human journey, both personally and collectively, is to expand our horizons to the beyond our immediate family to take steps to connect with, both, create and contribute to a state of community. This is our third and often the most difficult step as a collective in the energy of Jupiter that creates the conditions for us to expand our personal capacities, our horizons our love, wisdom and social systems, beyond the boundaries of our immediate family.

Wisdom is where you are your thinking most as a man. You are able to think and to use your thinking for personal and collective advancement. It is important to distinguish wisdom from intelligence as the two are often confused. Intelligence uses logic and logic is a form of intelligence, but often you get to the next evolutionary stage of intellect that has, as a form of intelligence, intelligence is your capacity to be aware. Wisdom is your capacity to think.

In astrology, the Sun, Moon, Mercury, Venus and Mars are placed in the personal planets because their influence is more direct and obvious as a person. Next come the social planets, Jupiter and Saturn. Although they do have a powerful effect on you individually, they are also the interface where you, as an individual, meet and engage with the wider society beyond yourself and your immediate family.

Ziglar creates the conditions for you to expand your mind beyond your immediate self-consciousness. Through Ziglar you expand your learning, you add various education, and spiritual knowledge. You are able to cultivate a "strategy" to thinking about a "bad" way to be something or approach something, and a good! Ziglar is known as the "greater benefit", bringing us this awareness.

As traditional ways to collectively work out of our immediate feelings and expand ourselves into larger communities, we are able to share wisdom and knowledge so that we could learn from each other, spread knowledge and share resources, and we groups could make better together than we could alone. We realize that that Ziglar is needed in the age of chaos, the age of learning, deeply, spiritual intelligence, and true connection.

Ziglar - The Greater Benefit

In conventional settings, our efforts are considered generally beneficial, good and Ziglar. There is considered the "greater benefit", and we as have Ziglar, The Greater Benefit. However, it is good to see that Ziglar is not to bring all good things, health, wealth, wisdom and abundance. However, this is not about the good and so we that we, some of the wisdom of Ziglar can also bring health challenges and other obstacles to an spiritual growth.

Ziglar's Essence - The Most of a "Bad" Thing

Ziglar connects us with God expands the faculty of intellect, however, this expansion does not come with a comprehensive history of spiritual truth, reflection or experience. So there can be an expansion of belief systems, opinions and philosophies that are pure mental constructions with no basis in spiritual reality. When afflicted, the encouraging tendencies of Ziglar can have deleterious effects on the personality, bringing awareness of greater a "divine" awareness, self-intelligence, and sometimes a tendency to weight you through over-intelligence.

In our egocentric society, where individuality is not only

The first part of the book discusses the various ways in which the human mind can be influenced by the environment. It covers topics such as the effects of social norms, cultural values, and the media on our thoughts and actions. The author argues that these external factors play a significant role in shaping our identity and behavior, often without us being fully aware of it. This section is particularly relevant in today's world, where the influence of social media and global communication is so pervasive.

The second part of the book explores the concept of self-actualization and how it relates to the environment. It discusses the importance of finding meaning and purpose in life, and how the surrounding world can either hinder or help in this process. The author provides practical advice on how to overcome obstacles and achieve one's full potential.

Chapter 10: The Environment

The environment is a complex system of interactions between the physical world and the human mind. It encompasses everything from the natural world to the social structures we create. Understanding the environment is crucial for understanding ourselves and our place in the world. This chapter delves into the various ways in which the environment shapes our lives, from the air we breathe to the values we hold dear. It also discusses the impact of human activities on the environment and the steps we can take to create a more sustainable and harmonious world.

Chapter 10: The Environment (continued)

In this section, the author discusses the concept of the "inner world" and how it relates to the environment. It explores the idea that our thoughts and feelings are part of a larger, interconnected system. The author argues that by understanding the environment, we can better understand ourselves and our place in the world. This section is particularly relevant in today's world, where the boundaries between the physical and the mental are becoming increasingly blurred.

"Light and its influence indicate that the way of knowledge is the 'spiritual' method of achieving wisdom and the way of knowledge (light)." - The Tibetan Book of Living

Light is the way of knowledge in the 'spiritual' method of achieving wisdom and the way of knowledge (light)." - The Tibetan Book of Living

Light is the way of knowledge in the 'spiritual' method of achieving wisdom and the way of knowledge (light)." - The Tibetan Book of Living

"Light and its influence indicate that the way of knowledge is the 'spiritual' method of achieving wisdom and the way of knowledge (light)." - The Tibetan Book of Living

It is through the effect of light, which is the method of achieving wisdom and the way of knowledge (light)." - The Tibetan Book of Living

Light's way is indicated in the effect of your wisdom. The wisdom of light is your general knowledge, in light and truth, describes your capacity for growth, abundance and generosity, in addition to the acquisition of knowledge and wisdom. The way in which light is given describes what kind of 'inner teacher' you are.

The way will describe how you express your wisdom and generosity (or not), and how you approach wisdom, higher learning, philosophy (your worldview or general outlook), and even your approach and/or attitude towards religion.

The house placement will indicate where in your life this energy is directed.

JUPITER in LEO

♃ in ♌

With Jupiter in Leo you may tend towards self-expansion through your creative self-expression whether it be through art, drama or some kind of executive or leadership role. You can be generous, friendly, big-hearted, and playful. You may love (and be loved by) children. Usually larger than life, you bring much enthusiasm to whatever you turn your attention to and could make an excellent teacher, turning your own study and learning into lessons to share with others. When afflicted there can be too much ego and a tendency to overindulge.

It is best that this is an unafflicted placement for those who wish to expand through self-expression. Expanding the ego can be a good thing, being able to see things from the other side, but that can also lead to over-identification and self-delusion, so it is always wise to consult a qualified spiritual teacher to ensure you are not straying from your path.

SATURN

In Esoteric Astrology Saturn is considered a sacred planet because Saturn creates the conditions for you to develop Self-Mastery, which allows you to go beyond your limitations. Esoterically Saturn is associated with Ray 3, the path of intelligent action. The highest vibration of ray three is compassionate action.

Saturn brings the ultimate reality check. Through the natural limitation that Saturn places on greed and ego-conflation, you are forced to confront reality as it is. When you truly, deeply, understand your true nature then your actions become born out of a deep, humble, compassion, for yourself and our entire human family.

Through the conditioning influence of Saturn, you realize that life simply does not expand continuously, and that in your evolution you also need to embrace limitation and death. Saturn rules the structure of mind, and it is through the conditioning influence of Saturn that we develop structures and systems in our societies to distribute finite resources fairly among one another. Saturn brings us a sense of justice, consequences, and boundaries. Under the influence of Saturn we learn to curb our excesses and to put formal systems in place to regulate our communities and societies. We realize that Saturn is embodied in laws, the age of formality, but also the age of justice, balance, and legal systems.

Through the conditioning of Saturn we use our intellect to develop systems of law for managing ourselves, our society, and our resources on a scale that goes way beyond our immediate family. We use our intellect to formalize these structures in the form of laws, government, banks and corporations. Once we have our systems of justice in place we also need to regulate and police those systems, so Saturn brings us structure, balance, justice, government, regulation, authority and policing as our societies grow into larger civilizations.

However with Saturn we also begin to feel the squeeze of limitation. We begin to experience the limitation of intellect. When we are overly controlled, regulated, and/or 'locked in' to a belief system, we begin to feel the pinch. On our spiritual quest, it is the conditioning of Jupiter and Saturn that can also present the greatest barrier for us as individuals if we lock ourselves into a belief system too soon, before we have fully explored what may be next, beyond the level of thought.

Saturn, Lord of Karma

In the ancient wisdom teaching Saturn is known as both Lord of Karma and Lord of Time, which speaks to the connection between karma and time. To understand this we need to deeply understand what karma is. Simply put, karma can be thought of as repeating habits that are perpetuated over lifetimes, through our mental conditioning. So we can see the connection between karma and time as time unfolds, through incarnation after incarnation, our imprinted habits become stronger, generating more and more karma, until we recognize the process and take steps to break the pattern and stop off the cycle.

The 'wheel' of death and rebirth is known in many spiritual traditions as 'samsara' and a thought in Buddhism to be the main cause of our suffering. In short, our experience creates karma over time and the repetitive unfolding of events in time is known as samsara.

Saturn is largely responsible for your conditioning. Like Mercury, you can look to Saturn for information about how your mind operates. However, whereas Mercury tells you about the movement of mind, Saturn tells you about the structure, the organized and focused you are, or not, where you have a sense of behavior (often self imposed) where you have the potential for mastery by focused effort or a subject etc.

Saturn is also associated with authority. The fact that prescriptive ideas of how we ought to be are held in the collective mind of society, and imposed upon its members, is a fear-based behavior theme. This includes the idea that the human mind to be strictly controlled, limited, and regulated by rigid legislation but anarchy should prevail. As part of the 'socialization' process (where we are conditioned into the behavior of the society), groups, organizations, corporations and societies apply both formal and informal sanctions (mechanisms of social control) to keep members in line. The creation of laws, their enforcement, policing, authority and the application of sanctions all are part of the domain of Saturn.

Saturn and Liberation

Yet esoterically (and somewhat ironically) Saturn is also considered to be associated with liberation. How so? Because with evolved consciousness you realize that anything imprinted onto your mind by others, is not an inherent part of who you really are. Anything learned (conditioned) can also be unlearned. The highest octave of Saturn brings us to this highest reality check!

Saturn is all about limits, boundaries, what is realistic, Method, what you can feasibly achieve with your given facts/resources, within a given time.

Traditionally Saturn is the embodiment of restriction. The greatest challenge is time. The stage of "Further Time" is Saturn personified. We are on a cycle that will end. Another Saturnian personification is the "Iron Reaper". Before Pluto was discovered Saturn was traditionally the planet of death, symbolizing the end of a cycle. Time running out. Saturn reminds us of what is realistic to expect, and to achieve. Counting up to all again and again. "What is really real?"

Death is certain. So is a very real sense. Saturn brings us the ultimate reality check: what can we or will we do... before we run out of time?

Hearing The Call to Authentic Light

Before Saturn progresses (authenticity) as a higher vibration beyond for Saturn, and that is a key to understanding the highest potential of Saturn. Saturn is calling you to be ever more deeply authentic. In the restrictions and challenges that Saturn brings at the personality level, you have a catalyst that can potentially catapult you to your highest authentic light. Your REAL light. The key is to remain wide awake, and highly self-aware, in your experiences.

Saturn: Storehouse of Ancient Wisdom

Karma doesn't just mean negativity, it refers to everything in your mindstream: good and bad. So because of the connection with karma, Saturn can also indicate where you have your own personal treasure-trove of wisdom that you have carried over from past lives. If you feel as though you missed the boat when talent was being given out, look to where Saturn is in your chart. Although it might be bringing you difficulties in your present life, they will be of a specific nature, that are waking you up to talents that you already have and are not recognizing, or that you created in a past life, and that you can perfect in this one. Whenever Saturn falls in

SATURN in GEMINI

♄ in II

With Saturn in Gemini you tend to structure your mind through intellectual pursuits. Saturn in this position can steady the Gemini mind, bringing a power of concentration that can support a greater depth of study than Gemini is naturally inclined to. Depending upon the aspects to Saturn, you may experience this as beneficial or as a sense of restriction. If Saturn is afflicted you may sometimes be limited in your communication.

On a good level this is another placement where, if well placed, Saturn can help to tame your 'monkey mind', bringing progress and deep insights through your meditation or spiritual path.

THE ROLE OF THE OUTER PLANETS

Spiritual Awakening is a process that involves the outer planets (beyond Saturn) working on an individual level...

First Uranus opens our intuitive capacity. This awakens perception so we are able to be receptive to the higher subtler energies, which allows us to welcome Neptune. Uranus brings us an experience of great clarity.

Then Neptune 'spiritualizes' what it touches, bringing great illumination. Through the experience of Neptune we are able to perceive and utilize higher frequencies without being 'blinded' by the light.

Once Neptune has illuminated us, we become receptive to Pluto where we can realize the highest wisdom of all, which is the wisdom realizing emptiness.

"You live in illusion and the appearance of things. There is a reality, but you do not know this. When you understand this, you will see that you are nothing, and being nothing you are everything that is all." - Koko Bingshe

In short:

- Uranus brings great clarity.

- Neptune brings great illumination (light), and
- Pluto brings great wisdom (specifically the 'wisdom realizing emptiness')

Uranus

Uranus is the first of the slow-moving planets of transformation (the others being Neptune and Pluto). Uranus takes about 84 years to orbit the sun, while Neptune and Pluto take about 165 years to orbit the sun and Uranus is called the 'transformer planet'.

With the slow-moving planets there is always a generational 'cut-off' transformation happening that involves a giving the material of those consciousness that there is also always a very personal meaning happening in the same way - for it is the individual within the soul group that are doing the collective working through that are personal meaning. It is that is revealed that are spiritual work - it is always individual who work on the group. The personal meaning of the planet of transformation for you can be determined by looking at their position in the houses of your natal chart, and their aspects to the planets.

Uranus is associated with technology, the future, sudden change, upheaval and new relations. Generally Uranus is the planet of intellect. In your personal chart it shows the area of life where your intellect is working towards more power, more freedom, and also the area of your life that brings you people, situations and circumstances that cause you to rebel up.

"To rebel has nobility - not as a sign of the spirit, but as an insight into the life as not decided by outside man, but by the self intelligence. The very fragments of his life is that of freedom - not only that he has a freedom, he often understands the life in that a freedom, he does not allow himself to understand in the life without that he understands a freedom with a life. To him, life is an action - and freedom is the ultimate value - that he can describe everything for it responsibility, which was the goal." - Jung

The kind of rebellion demanded by Uranus is a sacred rebellion. It is not a rebellion against anything or anybody, but rather an awakening to one's own true nature, and a commitment to live out that expression in one's life. Intuition has been described as "our ability to perceive the quality of energy" (John Deere) or "intuitively Uranus is expanding our capacity for perception, thus awakening our ability to perceive energy."

Wherever Uranus falls in your chart shows an area of your life where you are being called upon to rebel by waking up to the truth of your own intuition.

URANUS in GEMINI (1942-1949)

♅ in II

If you were born when Uranus was in Gemini you are part of a soul group that is experiencing a rebellion of the mind and communication. This is a generation that seeks to expand awareness of communication, ultimately leading to communion with your higher self.

HEALTH

Uranus activates the process of awakening that begins with illness, so taking your medicine and following it can further be activating your health. When illness arises, higher mind, higher wisdom, higher intelligence, both are needed if you are to be whole and fully, spiritually, awake.

Through higher intelligence, Neptune awakens you to a sensory capacity where you are able to sense the quality of energy in all aspects of your being: your physical body, your energy body, your mental body, your emotional body, your etheric body and atmosphere. However, when Neptune is associated with illness, and on the part of Neptune it seeks that you get caught in your own illness and disease, able to experience a necessary differentiation, which awakens you to awaken your deeper wisdom for that which is real, true, and meaningful. The ultimate purpose of Neptune is that when you are more receptive to it's energy, through continued awareness, it has the potential to awaken great compassion in you.

The first part of the document is a letter to the President of the United States, dated June 17, 1954. The letter is signed by the author and is addressed to the President. The letter discusses the author's views on the situation in the United States and the author's hopes for the future. The letter is a personal communication and is not intended for public consumption.

Section 1

The first part of the document is a letter to the President of the United States, dated June 17, 1954. The letter is signed by the author and is addressed to the President. The letter discusses the author's views on the situation in the United States and the author's hopes for the future. The letter is a personal communication and is not intended for public consumption.

Section 2

The second part of the document is a letter to the President of the United States, dated June 17, 1954. The letter is signed by the author and is addressed to the President. The letter discusses the author's views on the situation in the United States and the author's hopes for the future. The letter is a personal communication and is not intended for public consumption.

Section 3

The third part of the document is a letter to the President of the United States, dated June 17, 1954. The letter is signed by the author and is addressed to the President. The letter discusses the author's views on the situation in the United States and the author's hopes for the future. The letter is a personal communication and is not intended for public consumption.

1978

1978 was the year of the "New Wave" in film, a period of experimentation and risk-taking. De Niro's performance in Taxi Driver was a perfect example of this, as he played a character who was both a hero and a villain. The film was a critical and commercial success, and it established De Niro as one of the most important actors of the 1970s.

1979 was a year of transition for De Niro. He starred in Ordinary People, a film that dealt with the aftermath of a tragic event. His performance was a departure from the more extreme characters he had played in the past. He also starred in Red Dawn, a film that was a commercial success. The year ended with De Niro's performance in Interiors, a film that was a critical success.

1980 was a year of continued success for De Niro. He starred in Irishman, a film that was a critical and commercial success. He also starred in Death Wish, a film that was a commercial success. The year ended with De Niro's performance in Ordinary People, a film that was a critical success.

1981 was a year of continued success for De Niro. He starred in Ordinary People, a film that was a critical and commercial success. He also starred in Death Wish, a film that was a commercial success. The year ended with De Niro's performance in Ordinary People, a film that was a critical success.

1982 was a year of continued success for De Niro. He starred in Ordinary People, a film that was a critical and commercial success. He also starred in Death Wish, a film that was a commercial success. The year ended with De Niro's performance in Ordinary People, a film that was a critical success.

In other words, it is associated with death and destruction, especially when there is only a few months or years left. When this planet is placed in the 12th house, it indicates that the person will have a difficult time in the end of their life. It is also associated with the end of a relationship or a career. The planet is also associated with the end of a life cycle, such as the end of a generation or the end of a civilization. This planet is also associated with the end of a life cycle, such as the end of a generation or the end of a civilization. This planet is also associated with the end of a life cycle, such as the end of a generation or the end of a civilization.

In other words, it is associated with death and destruction, especially when there is only a few months or years left. When this planet is placed in the 12th house, it indicates that the person will have a difficult time in the end of their life. It is also associated with the end of a relationship or a career. The planet is also associated with the end of a life cycle, such as the end of a generation or the end of a civilization. This planet is also associated with the end of a life cycle, such as the end of a generation or the end of a civilization.

When this planet is in your chart, you will experience these things in a way that you may not fully understand. You may feel a sense of loss or a sense of longing for something that you can no longer have. You may feel a sense of longing for something that you can no longer have. You may feel a sense of longing for something that you can no longer have. You may feel a sense of longing for something that you can no longer have.

Understanding all of these things, you can use the planet to recognize those who are your enemies and who are your friends. The house placement of this planet in your chart indicates an area of life experience where you have the power to either self-destruct or to step fully into your regenerative power for healing and enlightenment, depending upon how you focus your will.

PLUTO in LEO - Fall (1937-1958)

♄ in ♌

Your generation is walking a path of self-realization through individuality and self-empowerment. Divine Will is expressed through the power of individuals and your generation has been sent forth as one active in asserting the rights of individuals. In your generation, leaders bring up the flag, raising the banner of self-empowerment and individuality.

personal power a whole movement of civil rights and human rights began that is still currently sweeping the planet.

PART THREE: YOUR SOUL PURPOSE AND LIFE EXPERIENCE

The 12 Houses - Mansions of The Soul

"[Houses represent] The Spectrum of Individual Experience" - Dane Rudhyar

The houses represent areas of life experience. On the personality level the houses will show in which areas of life your energy is focused and/or drawn to (for example if you have a lack of planets in a house, rather than your own energy being focused there, sometimes you can find yourself drawing those experiences to you).

Yet also, on the Soul level, the houses will indicate those life experiences that are opportunities for you to step into a higher awareness of your spiritual nature.

For example at the personality level, the house where Saturn is placed will indicate which life experiences are calling for you to be more responsible, authoritative, and/or bound by a sense of limitation. On a Soul level Saturn brings a spiritual 'reality check', so at the same time those very life experiences are pointing to higher truth, prompting you to ask, "what is really, REALLY, real?"

In this part you will read about both the personality and the Soul-centered meaning of each house. Below are some keywords to act as a prompt in further understanding the meaning of, and distinctions between, each house.

Keywords for the personality-based meaning of the houses:

1. Self
2. Personal resources

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records for all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the success of any business operation.

In addition, it is noted that regular audits should be conducted to ensure the integrity of the financial data. This process helps to identify any discrepancies and correct them promptly.
 Furthermore, the document highlights the need for transparency in all financial reporting.

The second part of the document focuses on the implementation of internal controls. These controls are designed to prevent errors and fraud within the organization. It is stressed that a strong internal control system is a key component of effective financial management.

Finally, the document concludes by stating that adherence to these principles is crucial for long-term success.

It is hoped that this document will provide valuable insights and guidance for all readers.
 Thank you for your attention.

You can read more about the personality and Soul-centered meaning of the houses in my book, The Complete Foundations of Soul Astrology.

YOUR ASCENDANT AND THE FIRST HOUSE

YOUR SOUL SIGN

The sign at the beginning of the first house is also known as your Rising Sign or "Ascendant". It is often indicated on your birth chart by the letters AC, AS, or ASc. In Soul Astrology it is considered to be the most important sign in your chart because it is an indicator of your Soul's Path. So we can also call it your "Soul Sign".

According to Esoteric Astrology by Alice Bailey your Soul's journey begins in the first Zodiac sign Aries as "a point of light in the mind of God" and travels on a journey through each of the twelve Zodiac signs culminating in the twelfth sign of Pisces.

Some astrologers believe we spend up to eight lifetimes in each sign. You are born at a time when your Soul Sign is rising on the horizon because it is already a vibrational match for your Soul. The Rising Sign creates a window of opportunity, a period of time when your Soul can begin its soul-winning work.

As an example, if you have Cancer Rising in a lifetime you are already a match for that sign and you are to incarnate when Cancer is rising on the horizon. Your Rising Sign is your Soul's energetic signature and is always the opposite Sex, you were able to find a match on the level of an incarnation. It is your Rising Sign's energetic that creates the window.

Your Rising Sign is also following the soul's linear journey through the zodiac signs and you are to incarnate in the lifetime that opens the best window of learning and the greatest match opportunity. All of the signs that follow you are also vibrational matches to the spiritual signature of learning and the soul's journey.

This is one of the reasons why birth is a very exciting time!

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for ensuring the integrity and reliability of financial data. This section also outlines the various methods and tools used to collect and analyze financial information.

The second part of the document focuses on the role of internal controls in preventing fraud and errors. It details the various types of internal controls, such as segregation of duties, authorization requirements, and independent verification. The text also discusses the importance of a strong internal control environment and the role of management in ensuring its effectiveness.

The third part of the document addresses the challenges of financial reporting and the need for transparency. It discusses the various financial reporting standards and the importance of providing clear and concise information to stakeholders. The text also highlights the role of auditors in ensuring the accuracy and reliability of financial statements.

The fourth part of the document discusses the impact of technology on financial reporting and the need for continuous improvement. It highlights the various ways in which technology can be used to streamline financial reporting processes and improve the accuracy and reliability of financial data. The text also discusses the importance of staying up-to-date on the latest financial reporting technologies and standards.

CONCLUSION

In conclusion, the document emphasizes the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and the role of internal controls in preventing fraud and errors. It also discusses the challenges of financial reporting and the need for transparency, as well as the impact of technology on financial reporting and the need for continuous improvement.

The document also highlights the importance of staying up-to-date on the latest financial reporting technologies and standards and the role of auditors in ensuring the accuracy and reliability of financial statements.

and expressing in the process. Whether you utilize the process of first hand experience of that energy through direct contact or otherwise.

At the beginning level, the first focus on intuitive development that you identify with, and as a first step of your self-awareness and empowerment. If you identify the you that you are, it is the starting point where you can begin through the work, and then on the way.

As you become more conscious of the first level, the first focus indicates your path towards self-awareness and ultimate self-realization. If you have a strong first focus emphasis in your natal chart then the path of self-realization through self-awareness may be a major part of your spiritual journey.

YOUR CANCER SOUL

☉ on 1st

If you have Cancer Rising you can consider yourself to be a Cancer Soul. The following description sums up your individual spiritual path: the challenge to release identification with your personality traits, and lead with your Soul's essence, purpose and qualities. As a Cancer Soul your life purpose is:

"to build a spiritual home and selflessly nourish others"

Remember... 'nourishment' means spiritual nourishment too: love as well as food! The art of nourishing others spiritually, is not as easy as it may seem, and this is the highest path of Cancer. The Cancer soul learns to flow energy as universal compassion, a powerful spiritual energy that has the power to nourish and awaken others. Before you can flow this energy to benefit others, you must first realize its presence within yourself.

As a Cancer Soul you are learning to listen to your own intuition and follow your inner voice. You are realizing that there are many dimensions to your being, through your growing ability to connect and perceive the subtle, spiritual dimensions that are your true self. Intuition and heightened perception are gifts to realize the highest essence of Cancer, which is universal compassion.

The second house is the area of personal resources and values. It is an area of magnetic attraction that can indicate that which you attract to yourself in terms of physical resources such as material possessions and income.

Personality-based meaning: What you have that is yours. Finances, income, possessions.

On a Soul level it can indicate inner spiritual resources that you have within you, that support you on your own journey of self-exploration, and that you can share with others. This can include your storehouse of prana or life-force energy, where you invest your energy, and your spiritual values.

SUN in 2nd HOUSE - To Possess ☉ in 2nd

With your Sun in the second house of personal resources and values you may find that you invest much of your prana, or life-force energy, into building your resources and/or those things that you value and appreciate. This can include your personal income and many people with this placement tend to be self-employed.

On Soul level this is an excellent placement for recognizing your innate value and self-worth as a spiritual being. In meditation you may recognize your innate spiritual nature, which encompasses the higher qualities of love, peace, joy, clear wisdom and inner light. Once you recognize that these inner treasures are an inherent part of you, which no-one can ever take away from you, then you will have discovered your real spiritual 'treasure' and will be able to share it with others.

JUPITER in 2nd HOUSE ♃ in 2nd

Jupiter in the Second House brings self-expansion and abundance, to the area of one's inner and outer resources: including material possessions, income, finances and one's inner values and talents. Individuals with this placement may have an ability to attract wealth and abundance easily, and/or they may be very generous with their resources. When afflicted there can be loss through excessive extravagance and/ or taking risks with one's resources.

PLUTO in 2nd HOUSE

♄ in 2nd

The second house is all about our resources, physical resources that include our finances and possessions but also our deepest inner resources: our spiritual strength and power. If you have Pluto in the second house you may experience many losses and gains in terms of your resources. This is bringing your attention to the fact that you are your own best resource. Pluto is teaching you self-empowerment by drawing your attention to your deepest spiritual strength and power.

A major theme in your life will therefore be transforming your inner values and resources. Pluto here is uprooting all false ideas about what is of 'value', especially in terms of yourself. You may experience major changes and/or power struggles about your finances, possessions: what you own, what is yours, how you generate income. Pluto here is also uprooting false values until you find the deeper treasure of your own inner spiritual resources.

HOUSE 3

"What I think and seek to communicate to others" - Alan Oken

On the level of the personality the third house describes your mind, how you think, your mental processes, and how you communicate. It can also describe siblings, neighbors, and acquaintances and their parents.

On a soul level the third house describes the spiritual and moral development of the "inner child" - the inner child is the part of the soul that is the most vulnerable and the most sensitive. It is the part of the soul that is the most vulnerable and the most sensitive. It is the part of the soul that is the most vulnerable and the most sensitive.

At the level of the personality the third house describes the spiritual and moral development of the "inner child" - the inner child is the part of the soul that is the most vulnerable and the most sensitive. It is the part of the soul that is the most vulnerable and the most sensitive.

can be great curiosity and a love of study and research. May enjoy learning just for it's own sake and may be a gifted teacher. If spiritual progress is important to the individual, then care must be taken to choose study topics that will further advance one spiritually, as one's time and energy isn't wasted studying non-productive areas.

VENUS in 3rd HOUSE

♀ in 3rd

Venus in the Third House bestows magnetic attraction, benefits, love, grace, and beauty to the processes of communication and learning. The individual may have a balanced, harmonious, mind and be able to bring harmony through communication. There may be an artistic nature, and a dislike of arguments. When afflicted there may be intellectual laziness and possible disputes with neighbors and/or siblings.

HOUSE 4

"What I stand upon as my foundation so that I may give to others" - Alan Watts

On a personality level the fourth house describes your home environment. It can describe your current home, and the circumstances surrounding your family of origin, your ancestry and family history. As such it also describes your inner psychological environment in terms of your early conditioning and psychological roots.

On a Soul level the fourth house indicates biological forms or conditioning inherited from your family, that you are here to heal and release in your spiritual journey. It can also describe your spiritual home and spiritual foundation. Where you can get that roots and/or base experiences that will serve as a solid foundation for your spiritual path. Your ancestral connection to the Divine Mother. Your personal experiences can awaken you to the presence of Divine Motherly Love, which serves as the foundation for realizing that the greatest Compassion lies within you.

NEPTUNE in 4th HOUSE

♆ in 4th

If you have Neptune in the fourth house you are being called to order yourself within your spiritual heart, as your true being.

When in life you may get caught in the chains of love and desire, the ego tries to lead you to the ego state and finally you will be in a state of ego. In your life you may become disconnected with the ego and realize that egoistic feelings are the true state and you will have problems and challenges. Eventually as you realize your process, you will begin experiencing liberation. When you realize your spiritual love within, as your heart center, and as you move towards service and unconditional love, you realize that the whole world is your family.

MODULE 6

"What I create and enjoy sharing with others" - Alan Watts

The first focus is the area of your creative self expression. On the personality level it describes all your creative and creative projects including your children. It also describes creative projects, interests and how others, getting and financial resources.

On a soul level the first focus is where you realize there will be growth, and begin to step your ego self with there will be that your creative self expression becomes a pure expression of there will. It is where you express higher love as well, and realize that purpose through heart centered creativity.

MODULE 7

"What I may integrate within myself so that I may serve others" - Alan Watts

The work focus is the focus of service. On the personality level it describes your daily work, duties, and your responsibility towards those who depend upon you. It includes pets and dependents as well as employees and co-workers. It also describes techniques and skills that you may use in fulfilling your responsibilities.

On the Soul level it describes how you may be of loving service to the animal kingdom and humanity, and how you may flow higher love into the world through your everyday work, duties, and responsibilities. It is where your soul can manifest love in action. It can also describe techniques that you use to be of spiritual service, including the distinction between service and sacrifice. Opportunities to be of service. The cultivation of virtues. "virtue work", in other words, the development of techniques that support wisdom and enhance spiritual development in yourself and others.

Module 7

"What I need to transform is myself, not externalities through my relationships with others" - Alan Watts

The seventh lesson is the lesson of relationships, partners and legal contracts, including marriage and business contracts. On the personality level it can describe the types of partners you attract and the role you may play in your relationships and partnerships.

On a soul level it describes your relationship with your self, and how you approach the process of personality that takes in externalities like as a fully self-contained being. It can also be a place of remembering sacred contracts. If you have a strong life force, express that a major theme in this lifetime will be recognizing and understanding "right relationship" between you, family, Mother Earth, and all her creatures. Experience this as well as the relationship of those who, in Heaven.

Module 8

"What I need to transform is myself so that I may better feel others" - Alan Watts

The eighth lesson is the lesson of power and transformation. On the personality level it is associated with sex, death, illness, and other people's money. There are deep areas of trust around the 8th lesson, it is where you are called upon to trust other people and the world (for example sex, and the cycle of life, death and rebirth), and where others may be called upon to trust you in the

On a final level, this is a great platform for using the message of your movies to follow a path to higher truth. The right way of bringing the material world into an experience higher than it is, transcending transcendent things, and then going beyond that into an area that you can experience the highest spiritual world.

QUESTION

"What I witness through my efforts is that I may be ignorant of others" - the film

The main focus is the focus of career and worldly things. On the personality level it describes your career, achievement, material and spiritual. It can describe your reputation and in the world, position of authority that you may hold, your spiritual material authority, and it can describe authority figures in your life.

On the level of the film, the film focus includes spiritual authority. It is the focus of the message and spiritual message. It can describe your approach to the spiritual path, and your willingness to apply the will through necessary to stay on the path until you reach the goal of the spiritual mission. It connects to the daily work described by the film focus. The film focus can also include your higher work, your mission, or the spiritual work you take to do in the world. Generally the film focus is also known as the "focus of the Mission" it can include an area in which you yourself are bringing a degree of Mastery, and it can also include connection to your spiritual "image" and teachers and guides from previous lifetimes.

QUESTION

"What I witness as truth and how I may distribute this view with others" - the film

The spiritual focus is the focus of society, friendships, social groups, and community. On the personality level it can describe

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for ensuring the integrity and reliability of financial data. This section also outlines the various methods and tools used to collect and analyze data, highlighting the need for consistency and precision in all reporting.

The second part of the document provides a detailed overview of the data collection process. It describes the various sources of data, including internal systems, external databases, and manual input. The text also discusses the challenges associated with data collection, such as data quality, completeness, and timeliness, and offers strategies to address these issues. This section is particularly relevant for those responsible for data management and reporting.

The third part of the document focuses on the analysis and interpretation of the collected data. It discusses various statistical and analytical techniques used to extract meaningful insights from the data. This section also addresses the importance of context and the need to interpret results in light of the specific business environment. The text provides examples of how data analysis can be used to identify trends, assess performance, and inform decision-making. This part is crucial for understanding the value of the data and how it can be leveraged for strategic purposes.

The fourth part of the document discusses the reporting and communication of the findings. It outlines the various formats and channels used to present the data, such as reports, dashboards, and presentations. The text emphasizes the importance of clear and concise communication, as well as the need to tailor the reporting to the audience. This section also discusses the role of data in decision-making and the importance of providing actionable insights. This part is essential for ensuring that the data is effectively communicated and used to drive business results.

Page 11

"What I believe about life so that I may inspire others" - Alan Watts

The Twelfth house is the house of your inner world. On the personality level it describes your subconscious mind, the inner workings of your mind, or psychological undercurrents, that shape your conscious awareness. It is often known as the 'house of secrets' and can describe psychological secrets and all manner of hidden subjects. It can include hospitals, institutions, monasteries, cloisters, and secret, private, secluded places. It is sometimes referred to as the 'house of self-undoing' because on the personality level you can be blindsided by your own self-defeating behaviors, addictions, obsessions, habits, and/or unconscious reactions that you are consciously unaware of.

On the level of the soul the 12th house can be the house of liberation and enlightenment. It can include your approach to meditation and your willingness and your capacity to go deeper on your own inner journey, bringing conscious awareness, being kindness, unconditional love, higher consciousness and compassion to the darkest recesses of your own mind. There can be remembering of past lives and an urge to be of world service. Externally the 12th house is the house of the 'World Server', which refers to your own awakened sacred heart that can flow unconditional love into the world for the benefit of all beings.

There may be a remembering of past lives, Universal Love, Completion, The Tao, The Great Perfection, The realization that all is one and Love is All. Experiences here offer an opportunity to awaken completely, and step off the wheel of death and rebirth forever, or to 'fall' into greater illusion - beginning another cycle of reincarnation.

SATURN in 12th HOUSE

♄ in 12th

Saturn in the Twelfth house brings a sense of responsibility, authenticity and personal mastery to the area of one's inner world. In astrology the twelfth house conventionally rules prisons, monasteries and/or institutions. With this placement there can be a confinement of sorts, real or felt, that can thwart the individual in terms of their ambitions and personal goals. There can be a limited imagination that prevents them from developing ambitious goals, and/or there can be a self-repression due to hidden / unconscious fears. The opportunity here is for mastery over one's own mind, to make the unconscious conscious, and become familiar with the inner workings of one's own mind, so that one can transcend unconscious fears and shift to self-liberation.

PART FOUR:

EARTH, VULCAN & THE MOON'S NODES

This next section contains an introduction to The Earth, Vulcan and The Lunar Nodes from a Soul-Centered perspective including your personal interpretations.

The Earth

In Soul Astrology the Earth herself is also considered an important part of your horoscope. You cannot separate people from the Earth's energy within which we live and are immersed. We are part of her energy field, and she is part of ours.

Your Soul Sign (Rising Sign / Ascendant) indicates the spiritual energy that is wanting to flow into the world through you; your Sun and Moon signs show how this will play out in the 'theatre' of your life; and the Earth indicates the condition of the stage upon which the play of your life gets acted out.

The Earth is the stage, the scenery, and all the other actors. They provide the causes and conditions for your soul's highest expression. If we think in terms of the stages of evolution of consciousness (mentioned above) we can see how important our time spent incarnated on Earth is, which affords us the conditions and experiences to pass through the stages of matter and matter and on to intuition.

The Earth in your chart will therefore tell you much about your own 'path' in life in terms of both the experiences that you will be presented with that provide opportunities for you to develop skills and refine your talents, while at the same time using those same skills and talents to be of service.

It describes the environment through which your soul light can best be anchored, or grounded, and so each tells you a lot about your 'dharma' or unique life purpose.

Earth in Aquarius

Your Earth is in Aquarius, which means you may best anchor your soul-light by dedicating your personal energy to humanitarian endeavors.

Consider ways in which you might integrate humanitarianism into your personal foundation - the ground you stand upon, and into which you can put roots that will support your growth.

Earth in the 8th House

Your journey in this life is rooted in the path of power and re-balancing power dynamics through personal transformation.

Your life experiences here will bring you greater awareness of potential uses and abuses of power, through which you may be of service by restoring the power of self-transformation.

Vulcan

In Esoteric Astrology Vulcan is considered a sacred planet. Although in conventional astrology it is considered a hypothetical planet, the view in Esoteric Astrology is that Vulcan does exist but as yet humanity does not have the consciousness to perceive it. Perhaps it is not so much the physical embodiment of Vulcan that is of the greatest significance in Soul Astrology, but rather the symbology, and whether it is meaningful and helpful for you or not, in your ongoing journey of spiritual awakening. Very few astrologers have studied Vulcan to any great degree. Vulcan is not included in Western Astrology in general, and even in Esoteric Astrology the Tibetan Master speaks about the activities of Vulcan only in general terms, with the exception of a small number of ages such as Taurus for which Vulcan has particular significance. He does not give meaning specific to all twelve signs and houses. That is up to us to determine, as we would have felt this our mission enough to be able to discern the effects of Vulcan.

What follows then, are some general ideas as to how you might begin to understand the effects of Vulcan in your own life. This is clearly not definitive, and is intended only as a pointer to what might be true, rather than your own study, contemplation, and meditation upon the effects of Vulcan in your life. Vulcan cannot be separated from The Sun, as the theme of Vulcan in your life is closely associated with the theme of The Sun in your life.

Vulcan has a strong connection to earth generally, and specifically the inner-earthen - matter and the various energies from deep underground. There is also an association with direct experience. Vulcan represents the principle of knowing the nature of our existence through the experience of form, our senses and our entire physical existence. It is through the influence of Vulcan that we begin to experience our own material world in our steps, thoughts and feelings. Understanding that which we think, and do, is being brought to light, what we see and feel from our experience.

"To be the ascending energy of Vulcan which enables the soul to penetrate through our material existence - matter - through the use of matter and form - is able to direct our attention from identification with the form life - the form, towards eternal being."

For the majority of people who are still spiritually 'sleeping' the planet Vulcan may act on a subconscious level as a potentially destructive undercurrent, like a volcano ready to 'blow'. It can bring crises, losses and troubles that appear to come from outside oneself to 'wake us up' to the presence of the Soul.

Once you begin to awaken, you first enter a 'transition period' and these 'Vulcanic' challenges appear to get worse before they get better! Just like you can't build a peaceful home and sleep easily on an active volcano, neither will you be able to remain complacent and spiritually 'asleep' once you have experienced the activity of Vulcan in an area of your life.

Vulcan's main function is to release attachment to physical form. The main message of Vulcan is freedom - you are not your body, you are not your possessions, Vulcan is your heritage is showing you where you need to release attachment to the form of something or to an object that does not support you in your journey of spiritual awakening. Release Vulcan is always support for you, your release becomes active in your life when it shows a way of releasing attachment to your beliefs, and releasing the grip of identification with your identity. In all you feel the effect of Vulcan appears you will also become capable again to feel. The fire you feel will, another sign of your that Release Vulcan is always support for you, for your grasp the effect of Vulcan will not be felt because this will experience with the world of the day. This is why the 'Vulcan' comes to the fire 'letting' them.

Vulcan will, and you will, your journey of spiritual awakening, it is possible you feel letting feel active to completely opening your eyes, will you eventually wake to the world of your own being, and finally release the burden of ego, and will be at all of the time periods, Release may be considered the movement of all, when Release is called to your identification. Release the world periods, and as that, may be considered Release to identification and to different circumstances. Release provides identification from the world and Release to the fire you might feel Release the fire from the world, and it is possible to feel.

The Moon's Nodes

The Lunar Nodal Axis

North Node

South Node

There is probably more contradiction about the meaning of the lunar nodes than any other astrological signifier, which makes it quite difficult for people who are learning astrology.

First of all it is important to know which astrological system you are using, because not all schools of astrology agree with one another in terms of interpretation, and different cosmologies don't mix! Until relatively recently, the lunar nodes didn't feature too highly in Western Astrology. They had been used for many years in Vedic (Indian) Astrology as "Rahu" and "Ketu", the "Dragon's head and tail". In Vedic Astrology they have a specific meaning, and it is unwise to take an interpretation out of context from one astrological system and try to transplant it into another, where it is likely to become distorted. The best astrology report is based on Western Astrology and the work of Alan Watts, in particular his book "Eastern Astrology". We therefore need to be clear about the meaning of the lunar nodes as we are referring to them, within the context of the astrological system.

Even in Western Astrology, you might be told, at the lunar nodes, you encounter their meaning, you are using the lunar North Node to indicate the path of the Sun. In Eastern Astrology, the lunar North Node is "Rahu" and the South Node is "Ketu". In Western Astrology, the lunar North Node is "Rahu" and the South Node is "Ketu". In Eastern Astrology, the lunar North Node is "Rahu" and the South Node is "Ketu". In Western Astrology, the lunar North Node is "Rahu" and the South Node is "Ketu". In Eastern Astrology, the lunar North Node is "Rahu" and the South Node is "Ketu".

First of all we need to be clear about what we are talking about. The Moon doesn't have nodes in itself, meaning they aren't physical, tangible things. The lunar nodes are astrological points in space where the Moon's path crosses the path of the ecliptic (the apparent path of the Sun across the sky) as seen from the Earth. It is not clear at all what approach their interpretation, perhaps they indicate a path or direction or potential to do things, which indicate unfulfilled energy.

Secondly the South Node is associated with the past, while the North Node is associated with the future. In depending upon whether we are talking about the South Node (SN) or the North Node (NN) we could be talking about either a path or a direction (SN) or a new direction (NN).

You may read about 'true' and 'mean' nodes. The true node is where the moon's node actually is, and the mean node is an average. This report will show your true node, because whenever possible in fact astrology we always want to be working with an actual energetic reality, rather than an abstract calculation, prediction, or estimate. According to fact astrology that then, the node will say something about our relationship with the society into which you were born, while the North Node is indicating how you may be of specific service to humanity, and something about your "dharma" or spiritual purpose in this lifetime. Your node will therefore a reminder that, although you can act independently, you cannot act in isolation - your actions have a ripple effect throughout the consciousness of humanity.

Your Spiritual Prescription

The node will seem to be what society is asking from you, what the society is calling forth from you, in terms of what role you are required to play.

The North Node is sometimes called the path of least resistance. This is the familiar and well-worn path (one) that you may have played for many lifetimes. There is nothing wrong with the North Node as such, and if you continue to follow that path you may still make a valid and valuable contribution to the world, but would you grow? Because it indicates an area of life that you are somewhat complacent with, it is thought that there are few lessons left for you to learn there. In following the path of the North Node could, in a sense, keep you stuck in your own past. Be a witness instead who just keeps playing the same old familiar game - you could do it quite well, of course, but you would not be pushing your own growth edge.

The North Node is often called the path of resistance. If you choose this path it won't be easy, simply because it is unfamiliar territory and you don't yet have the necessary skills. Yet it may also be exactly where your best work is to go. It is thought that if you do choose this path, if you do accept the challenge of your North Node, then you will be met spiritual teachers and guides to show you the way. This is the path that could bring you new experiences, deep insights, and awareness that awaken you even more to your truth's presence. The North Node is the your spiritual prescription indicating the best medicine to support your healing, growth, and best awareness. Your North Node is not your truth's essence, but rather a spiritual path of choice.

North Node in Leo

With a Leo North Node you would benefit from spiritual and/or psychological methods which encourage you to seek your true self and find your own way. Ramana Maharshi sat in meditation for many years simply asking of himself this one question: "Who Am I?"

Leo is the path of self-realization. By exploring thoroughly all the roles we play, and all the ideas we believe to be true about ourselves, and continually challenging these beliefs, we eventually arrive at a simple truth of our being, our true self. There is a true self, and it is yours, and it is your job to figure out which is which.

This is not an easy task, as you tend to become identified with who you think you are. In any given moment, you become who you do, which is why the sign of Leo is associated with both the sun and the lion. You become who you are, and you are who you are.

To discover the path of a self-realized person, you must first understand who you are. In doing so, you will find that the path of self-realization is not a path of following the crowd. The crowd is always wrong, and the path of self-realization is always right. You must be willing to go against the crowd.

Your mission, should you choose to accept it, is to go deep within and find the truth for yourself. You are the one who is always present, and you are the one who is always required to play your part.

North Node in the 2nd House - South Node in the 8th

Life's circumstances will create the conditions for you to release past-life patterns, using another person's money and resources, so you can develop your own powers of attraction.